$100,000 GOULD BRIBERY TRIAL RECORDS DUG UP

Evidence Involves Maine Senator.

STREET. Left to right: Coughlin, William J. McGuffee, secretary to the committee.

Frederick, N. B., Dec. 15.—An official transcript of the evidence which Senator R. Gould, senator-elect from Maine, gave about the payment of $100,000 to J. K. Fleming, then premier of New Brunswick, in connection with the St. John Valley railway contract, was found here this evening.

A Democratic resolution in the United States senate charges Mr. Gould with bribery and demands that he be refused the senate seat to which the Maine voters have just elected him. A committee has been named to investigate the matter, which involves the Fleming deal.

The file in connection with the case was found to be missing from the records of the provincial legislature. But a transcript of the evidence prepared by the official court reporter in the hearing is in possession of Peter J. Hughes of Frederick, the only surviving lawyer among the four engaged in the case.

History of Case.

Fifteen years ago, in 1911, when the provincial legislature decided to push construction of the St. John Valley railway, the St. John and Quebec railway company was formed to act as the construction company, which would be paid by a subsidy from the dominion government and with bonds which the provincial government agreed to guarantee. When Mr. Gould and his associates contracted to build the railway they were given the controlling shares in the company. F. J. Leman & Co. of New York, financial backers of Mr. Gould, and the Prudential Trust company of Montreal were named as trustees for the bonds.

Later on, when differences developed between the Gould interests and the politicians then directing the province's affairs, an act of the legislature was passed taking away from Mr. Gould and his associates the interest they had in the St. John and Quebec railway company, but providing for arbitration of a claim for $445,560 which Mr. Gould and his associates filed as 10 per cent on the amount expended up to that time on the construction of the railroad. They asserted that 10 per cent was a fair profit for contractors, but they submitted an alternative claim of $234,740 for the loss of their stock in the company.

Forced to Go to Hearing.

It was in attempting to prove that the $445,560, claimed to have been expended had been legitimately charged to the project, that Mr. Gould was forced to come to the province and give evidence or see his demand for $445,560 go by the board. This was following the general provincial elections of 1917. The late F. B. Carroll, afterward chairman of the board of railway commissioners of Canada, was placed in charge of the case for the province as a result of the change of administration, and Mr. Hughes became counsel for the St. John and Quebec Railway company.

While under cross-examination by Mr. Carroll Mr. Gould admitted paying $100,000 to the then premier. Nine pages of the official transcript of the evidence is made up almost entirely of the bitter verbal bout between Carroll and Gould, in which the former was dragging from the latter admissions that the $100,000 had been paid about the time the contract was entered into and that the money had been paid by Gould himself to Fleming himself.

Admissions on Stand.

Mr. Gould contended, however, during the merciless grilling which he underwent on the witness stand that he had been "given to understand that a contribution to a campaign fund would be expected." At one stage he admitted "It is well known that I contributed to a campaign fund." Then again Mr. Gould said that he had "consented" to make the payment only at one stage he said the then premier (Fleming) had told him that "such concern bidding for the contract had offered to pay twice the sum (Gould) was asked to pay."

"I got the money from the trust company," Mr. Gould answered when asked as to how the payment was made.

And handed it over to Mr. Fleming," was Mr. Carroll's next inquisitive suggestion. "Yes," was Mr. Gould's reply.

JUST BEFORE CHRISTMAS AND EASTER

Death Bares Cinderella of Rothschilds

BY DAVID DARRAH.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

LONDON, Dec. 15.—A modern Cinderella, whose fairy prince was a member of the famous guards regiment, was revealed to THE TRIBUNE correspondent today in the person of Mrs. Jack Saunders, who until lately was cook in the home of Mrs. F. Duffus, American wife of Col. Duffus, 8 Sloane court, Chelsea.

Three years ago Mrs. Duffus engaged as cook a young French girl who was well dressed, refined and a veritable paragon in the kitchen. Later the cook started keeping company with a young guardsman named Saunders. They were married, and in order to keep the cook, Mrs. Duffus employed the guardsman also as butler.

Baby Brings Good Fortune.

Still later the cook gave birth to a baby in a nursing home, whence she unexpectedly wrote to her former mistress that she would be unable to return to Mrs. Duffus' kitchen because of a great change in her fortunes. Mrs. Duffus, intrigued to know why they called at the nursing home and found her former cook had gone to live in a luxurious hotel.

Following her there, she learned over tea cups in the hotel salon the romantic story. Twenty years ago, a member of the Rothschild family fell in love with Mrs. Saunders' mother, but the marriage was opposed by both families, so it was kept secret. When a baby girl, who is now Mrs. Saunders, was born, the mother died and the grief-stricken father refused to see the child, but confided her to his secretary, giving him a large annual sum to provide for her. Instead, the secretary pocketed the money and sent the child to be brought up by a poor charwoman, who placed her in domestic service.

Confesses on Deathbed.

On his deathbed recently the secretary sent for a member of the Rothschild family and confessed his crime. A search was made far and wide until the girl was located in London, where the Rothschild letter reached her while in the nursing home. A touching reunion followed.

Mrs. Duffus invited her former cook to luncheon at a fashionable American women's club in Mayfair, and frequently has had her as house guest in the country over weekends.

Mr. and Mrs. Saunders are living happily in a London flat, and the Rothschilds, according to the story, are trying to aid the former guardsman to get a good post in South Africa.

PAPERS AT ONE STILL LEAD TO RAID ON SECOND

Raided by Prohibition Agent Gus Simpson yesterday afternoon, two extremely large alcohol distilling plants. The first place raided was a building at 1381 South Cicero avenue that covers a quarter of a block and had supposedly been in disuse for a long time.

Three men were arrested there, the names and addresses they gave being Austin Boulevard, where a similar plant was uncovered. They found stills and reeking material and 830 gallons of the alkyl ready for the drinking market. Louis Frins and Ben Mansfield, both of whom gave 1820 South Kedzie avenue as their address, were arrested at this place.

Cold Remains Another Day; 2 More Dead

Although rises in temperature were reported from the Rocky mountains and from some sections of the northwest, the weather bureau warned last night that Chicago and the middle west are in for another twelve hours of unseasonable cold. Indications are, however, for more moderate weather by tomorrow.

The local forecast stated that the weather in Chicago and vicinity will probably be fair today, with some prospect of cloudiness, while tomorrow will be more or less cloudy and "not quite so cold." The lowest temperature yesterday was 3 below at 7 a. m.

Adds to Toll of Death.

Two Chicago deaths added to the toll of the day before yesterday brought the list above 20 for the entire country. One of the local dead was identified as Clarence Wymann, 65, 8147 Champlain avenue. He fell down at 31st street and Cottage Grove avenue. An unidentified man was found dead in an unheated flat at 14 North Curtin street. He appeared to be one of the army of homeless men.

The general forecast for the north middle west was: "Continued cold weather will prevail today in the great lakes region and adjacent areas to the west and south, including Minnesota, most of Iowa, and eastern North Dakota." It added that on "Friday reaction to rising temperature will be more general."

Warm Shippers of Cold.

Some indication of what may be expected in the weather is to be expected in the advice to shippers which is to protect shipments to the north and west against temperatures of from zero to 15 below; to the west from 5 to 15 above; east 5 to 10 above, and south 10 to 20 above.

For Chicagoans there is the consolation that just 25 years ago on this day the mercury reached a minimum of 13 below and that it never got any higher than minus 2 degrees all day.

The Atlantic seaboard yesterday began to feel the first whiffing of the storm. All along from upper New England down to the south end of New Jersey a snowstorm was raging and the mercury was slipping down. Boston reported that southern New England was buried in 14 inches of snow, still falling.

The most severe cold was reported from Norfolk, Neb., where the mercury slipped down to 23 below. Casper, Wyo., reported a rise from 31 below to 29 above.

Small Names Col. Smith for Senatorship

Frank L. Smith, senator-elect, was appointed last night to fill the unexpired term of Senator William B. McKinley. It was announced in Springfield by Gov. Small. The appointment was accepted by Mr. Smith, and he will go to Washington in a few days prepared to take up his duties.

At Dwight, Ill., Mr. Smith verified reports that Senator James E. Watson of Indiana, on behalf of the Republican senate leaders, had besought him, over long distance phone from Washington, not to accept appointment to the vacant seat, but he declined then to say whether that would influence his decision.

Meanwhile, inside reports from reliable downstate sources, were that Mr. Smith had decided to accept.

Ready for the Fight.

Friends of the senator-elect in Chicago yesterday argued that if Smith declined the appointment it would be regarded as an admission of disqualification. Strong supporters of Smith said he takes the position that the slush fund charges are bound to come anyhow, and the best time to get ready to face them is the present. Reports in the Smith camp were that the views taken in the conference at Springfield were that Republican leaders feared a special session and that they asked Smith to let them escape this by a refusal of the vacant place which would be construed by the public as his fear to face the music.

G. O. P. LEADERS OPPOSE SMITH.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 15.—[Special.]—Developments today removed any doubt that Senator Frank L. Smith of Illinois will be excluded and not even allowed to take the oath of office. The Republican leaders in the senate, who telephoned the warning to Smith that he appears at this session. Such a warning was admitted by the Republican leaders today.

That it was Senator Watson of Indiana, assistant Republican leader of the senate, who telephoned the warning to Smith was known confidentially here last night and became public when a dispatch from Dwight, Ill., quoted Smith as stating that he had talked with Watson by long distance telephone.

Watson told Smith that not only the Democrats and the radical and independent Republicans but the regular Republicans would vote to deny him a seat if he comes here by appointment. The reason given for the attitude of the regulars is that they have determined to keep the Smith and Vane rump out of this session.

Would Force Extra Session.

To allow Smith to take the oath, Watson pointed out, would precipitate the whole Republican slush fund controversy in the shortest time ending March 4. There would be an investigation of the slush fund scandal. The investigation might result in filibustering, which would defeat appropriation bills and force the President to call an extra session of the next congress in the spring.

Watson went on to say that if Smith comes here by appointment the only way to sidetrack the vexatious question of his qualifications will be to exclude him the moment he presents his credentials.

NAB 350 IN HUNT FOR TWO KILLERS OF POLICEMAN

Search South Side for Escaped Bandits.

Two squads of detectives, armed with repeating shotguns and tear bombs, arrested 350 men in the south side colored belt last night in a hunt for two Negro bandits who yesterday morning shot and killed a policeman while making their escape after holding up and robbing an entire office force of twenty-five young women and four men.

Patrolman Julian Bonfield, 35 years old, of Wabash avenue station, was the bandits' victim. He was the son of Capt. Martin Bonfield, retired, of south park police, and a nephew of the late Police Inspector John Bonfield, a hero of the Haymarket riots of 1886. The slaying occurred just outside the offices of the University Extension conservatory, a small office music conservatory at 41st street and Langley avenue. It was found that a robbery was taking place, Bonfield had run from his post at Cottage Grove avenue and 41st street in time to encounter the fleeing bandits at the doorway of the firm's office.

Shoots Through Fur Coat.
The foremost robber carried over his arm a fur coat taken from one of the girls in the office. As the policeman ordered him to halt the bandit fired through the coat. The bullet struck Bonfield in the neck and he fell mortally wounded as the robbers fled. He died while being taken to the Chicago hospital.

Miss Laura Conrad, 6030 Stony Island avenue, a multigraph operator and the only employee of the music conservatory to escape robbery, was the heroine of the holdup. Seeing the two Negroes as they entered the office with drawn revolvers, she slipped out a rear door and dropped through a window to the sidewalk.

Runs to Coal Office.
She ran to the office of the Robertson Coal company at 746 East 41st street, and told officials of the robbery. John H. Brand, secretary of the company, and Guy Riddle, an employee, summoned Policeman Bonfield and then attempted to notify police station.

Milton E. Robinson, president of the coal company, said it was with great difficulty that the police were made to understand what was happening and that fifteen minutes elapsed before the first policeman arrived.

"We called five times in five minutes," he said. "One time we got the Wabash avenue station. I don't know what other stations we got, but the last time the man answering the phone got mad and hung up. It was fully fifteen minutes or more before the first policeman arrived. By that time the bandits had plenty of time to escape."

Two Trail the Bandits.
Meanwhile, however, Brand and Riddle had gone to the scene of the shooting. They arrived in time to see the bandits in flight. Riddle picked up the dying policeman's revolver and Brand pursued the robbers until they disappeared in a basement at 4th street and Vincennes avenue.

Deputy Chief John Stige of the detective bureau, with several squads, surrounded the building and searched it throughout. But the fugitives had vanished.

The mail order concern's force had just settled down to its daily routine when the bandits appeared. Terrified, the girls lined themselves against the wall with the four men. One girl, Miss Betty Fox, a stenographer, 7833 Maryland avenue, like Miss Conrad, slipped through a side door. But the bandit leader seized her roughly and dragged her back into the line.

At this point Howard E. Kramer, general manager, stepped into the room, and a bullet from the robber chief's gun bored a hole through the waistcoat a foot above the started official's head.

Rings and wrist watches were snatched from the girls and their handbags were rifled of lunch money. Two or three lost their fur coats. The total value of the loot was estimated at $1,000.

Bonfield was married and lived at 7138 South Chicago avenue. He was a private in the Blackhawk division and saw service in France.

Policeman John Shortall of Grand Crossing police captured one of two robbery suspects yesterday after being shot through the left arm. Shortall came upon the alleged bandit pair in an alley at 75th street and Cottage Grove avenue.

Policeman Ephraim McGee of Harrison street station shot and probably fatally wounded one of four colored burglars and captured another at 29th and Michigan avenue. The other two were later arrested. McGee was aided in the capture by his dog with which he was walking while off duty.

Up to 'Big Three.'
The solution of major crime will be charged up to the big three of the police department, Chief of Detectives Schoemaker, Deputy John Siegel, and Deputy Chief Zimmer. Every district captain is to take his orders from them. When a murder is reported in a district, regardless of the time of day, either one of the three is sure to be found at the scene.

The practice of withholding information from the chiefs at the bureau was also rapped by Chief Collins. At times the district captain feels that he can clean up a murder and will not inform Siegel or Schoemaker of the happenings. Often the gunman or murderer gets a flying start on the district captain, whereas if he had quickly notified the bureau chiefs, they could have thrown from five to ten squads in the territory within a few minutes, thus materially cutting the fugitive's chances of escaping. Chief Collins continued.

ORDERS CAPTAINS ONTO STREET TO HUNT CRIMINALS

Collins in New Police Drive on Outlaws.

Rolling down the station deck at 6 o'clock to hurry home to a cozy hearthside, heretofore a common practice among district police captains, was tabooed yesterday by Chief Collins when he ordered all captains onto the streets to personally direct their men in suppressing the winter crime wave.

Their will be no buck passing this time the chief said during a three hour session with his captains. Too many district men are prone to camp in warm places and partake of the hospitality of the proprietor, while the squad men are out doing the work, he added.

From now on the district captains will be held responsible for all complaints of citizens, gambling, liquor and other precinct administration.

Must Make Quick Report.
Beginning Jan. 1, every felony must be immediately reported by the district captain. This report will be put on record at the police bureau of statistics. The captain will then be given a chance to make a thorough investigation and then submit a regular report showing the progress made. This, the chief said, would do away with the practice of concealing reports of conditions in the various districts.

Then after a time, if the district shows only a few arrests and no real effort at clearing up the crime, the chief declared that the captain would be adjudged inefficient, and he personally would recommend his ouster.

Up to 'Big Three.'
The solution of major crime will be charged up to the big three of the police department, Chief of Detectives Schoemaker, Deputy John Siegel, and Deputy Chief Zimmer. ## REARRESTED

Mrs. Rebecca Bradley Rogers.

(Pacific and Atlantic Photo.)

GIRL BANK BANDIT NOW IS CHARGED WITH ARSON ALSO
Austin, Tex., Dec. 15.—(U. N.)—Taken from the bedside of her sick husband, Mrs. Rebecca Bradley Rogers, who is accused of being the flapper bandit who robbed a Texas bank, was rearrested today on charges of arson.

She was brought to Round Rock, Tex., where a vacant building adjoining a bank was burned last Friday.

Bank officials allege that Mrs. Rogers, honor graduate of the University of Texas and stenographer in the office of Governor-Elect Dan Moody, appeared in the bank shortly before the fire was discovered, attempting to gain the confidence of employees. Later, when flames shot from the structure, she ran into the bank, giving the alarm, it is claimed.

Dr. Joseph C. Eckhardt, attending physician, refused to divulge the nature of the youth's ailment. He said Rogers had requested him not to make public any information.

BANDITS HOLD UP FAMILY IN HOME; GET $2,500 LOOT

Morris J. Passin, former wine merchant, was held up and robbed last night in his home at 3650 Lexington street.

Passin, his wife Sadie, their daughter, Tillie, and nephew, Morris Lipster, had just finished their evening meal and Passin started to leave. As he entered the outer hallway three men with revolvers commanded him to keep silent and ring the bell. When the door was opened the three forced their way in.

They took Passin into the kitchen, where two men stood guard while the other went through the house. The one bandit found $2,000 worth of jewelry in a dresser drawer, and the two guards in the kitchen took $500 in cash from Passin.

KILLED BY INJURY IN FALL.
Joseph Bar, 32 years old, 750 E. Superior street, died at the county hospital yesterday from a fracture of the skull incurred in a fall while in front of his home Monday.

Bandits Stage Six Holdups with Police Hot on Trail

Police of the Austin district last night followed two bandits about while they committed holdup after holdup, until they had robbed a theater and five small stores, netting some $600. While the detectives were investigating the first of the series of stickups the robbers were a few doors down the street perpetrating the second, while the police followed to the second they were busy at the third, and so on. In the end the two highwaymen escaped.

The bandits invaded the usually quiet district of the northwest side late in the evening. Their first victim was Jack Friedman, proprietor of a men's furnishing store at 3901 West North avenue. Friedman reported they had taken $150 from him and detectives were dispatched to his place.

Stage Second Holdup.
While the detectives were in Friedman's place the two bandits were in the haberdashery of John Lass at 3923 West North avenue, just a few doors down on the same side of the street. After that the reports to the station came thick and fast, the detectives being sent to each place and arriving almost on the heels of the escaping holdup men.

The two young men were described as well dressed and polite, although they menaced their victims in a determined fashion and used their revolvers like veterans.

In quick succession after leaving the store of Lass they held up the Kevins theater, at 4948 Armitage avenue, taking $125, the shoe store of Joseph Lachinski at 2513 West Chicago avenue, netting $35; the shoe store of Morris Davidson, at 177 North Cicero avenue, taking $149 from Davidson and $34 and his watch from Herbert Alpertor, his clerk; and the fruit store of Sam Baustein, at 2508 Potomac avenue, where they obtained $50.

Find Storekeeper Tied.
When the police arrived at the store of Lass just after the bandits had left, they found Lass tied up in the back room. After that the bandits, driving an automobile, jumped from one place to another so fast it was impossible for the detectives to keep up with them.

Another pair of bandits shortly before midnight held up Lester Evans, 857 Leland avenue, at Willow avenue and Thistle street, taking $16 from him.

Mary Spas, the girl Browning once adopted, lists these counts:

1. For attempted assault in Browning's apartment, $100,000.
2. For nervous shock because of his supposed threats to kill her and himself if she related his conduct to the district attorney, $100,000.
3. For mental anguish during her supposed imprisonment in his apartment, $250,000.
4. For forcing her to sign certain papers the day the adoption was annulled, $50,000.

"It's highway robbery!" the white haired daddy said. "I'm not going to play Santa Claus to her or any one else this year—not with this trial against Feuchtwanger and me having to pay her alimony of $200 a week. I can't afford it. It's blackmail!"

U. S. BISHOPS JOIN IN PASTORAL NOTE AGAINST MEXICO

Plead Catholics' Cause
Before Bar of Public.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 15.—[Special.]—The cardinals, archbishops, and bishops of the Roman Catholic church in the United States today issued a pastoral letter denouncing the Mexican government as a tyrannical persecutor of religion and pronouncing the Mexican anti-clerical laws violative of the laws of God, and, therefore, not entitled to obedience.

This is the first collective pastoral letter since 1919, when the Roman Catholic episcopate stated its views of social and industrial conditions. Pastoral letters are issued infrequently and "only when some very vital issue is involved," according to the church announcement, which refers to this letter as epoch-making, declaring its purpose, "not to be to revive religious controversy, but to set it at rest forever."

Reason for the Letter.

The reason given for the issuance of the letter is that the Mexican government has submitted its case against the church to the American people. Now, the American bishops answer for their church "so that not only will our own people be fully informed of the interests at stake, but that the Mexican people may not be without the benefit of advice before the court to which their rulers have actually, but mistakenly, appealed."

Reviewing the State of Religion.

After reviewing the state of religion in Mexico in the United States under our constitution, the letter goes on: "In contrast with this, according to the present constitution of Mexico, no religious society may enjoy the right of corporate legal existence. Officially there are no churches in Mexico, for a church cannot possess anything; for a church lacks the right of petition for redress of grievances, cannot sue or be sued in the civil courts, and in general is entirely without legal standing. Clergymen are disfranchised by the fact of ordination."

Cannot Own Buildings.

A church cannot own the buildings in which its public worship is held. It cannot possess endowments. It cannot take up collection or a subscription outside the doors of the building used for religious services. That building, however, is owned by the government, though paid for and supplied by the people. The government merely allows the rightful owner to use it at the good pleasure of state officials.

All churches in Mexico, therefore, have to be supported by collections during the services. Now churches are multiply supported everywhere by subscriptions accepted apart from the acts of worship themselves. With us nearly all church building is paid for in that way. This is forbidden in Mexico, not by mere regulation but by constitutional enactment.

Subject to Confiscation.

In order to make this enactment effective a church is not allowed to possess houses for its bishops, priests, ministers, teachers, or superintendents. Its future may not be provided for, because it cannot have a seminary in which a clergy may be trained to take places made vacant by death or incapacity. The fact that a church uses a building is considered good ground for holding that it really belongs to that religious body. It may then be seized and confiscated.

If a clergyman even rents a home for himself the law provides that it may be seized on mere suspicion. Relations of clergymen are threatened with the loss of their own personal property on confiscation on the ground that such property really belongs to a church, for the law decrees that mere suspicion in such a case is full ground for the presumption that the property is for the church.

All property devoted by religious bodies to educational or charitable purposes is subject to confiscation. In order to make it impossible for a church to secure a building of any kind it is provided that in case of seizure, no

COOLIDGE HOPE TO AVOID HOTEL DURING WHITE HOUSE REPAIRS

Washington, D. C., Dec. 15.—[Special.]—President Coolidge does not wish to move to the "official executive family," but may have to do so to obtain a suitable private dwelling within easy walking distance of the White House, which is to undergo extensive repairs over a six months' period, beginning in March.

What concerns the President more than quarters for Mrs. Coolidge and himself are quarters for "his people," which is the manner in which Mr. Coolidge speaks of the staff of White House servants.

Mr. Coolidge desires to walk each day to and from his executive offices which constitute a wing of the present White House.

It is not unlikely that in the end the President will resume hotel life, which was his lot when Vice President.

Appeal to Bailout Unlikely.

When it comes to the question of righting the wrongs of which it complains, the church, say the bishops, turn to prayer, not to arms. There are but two human remedies. "The ballot and the sword." Appeal to the ballot is useless in Mexico, where votes are counted only when they favor the ruling power.

The second human remedy is equally hopeless, for Christian principles forbid the church to take up the sword or rely upon such carnal weapons as the inflamed passions of men would select. Hence, this letter is "no call on our side, and in consequence foreign clergy have been expelled."

"Thus the law first made it impossible for the people to have a native clergy and then impossible to have a foreign clergy, while the government keeps assuring the world of its liberality and that there is no religious persecution in Mexico."

Reversion to Paganism.

In this state of affairs the bishops perceive a reversion to paganism. "The legendary benefactor of the ancient tribes of Mexico and Central America is said to have been a white man worshipped as a god," the letter says. "This paganism united earthly and divine power in a deified state. The program of this new paganism eliminates the divine so as to leave the earthly in full possession. But the result of both extremes is the same—the slavery of the individual. How far all this is from our convictions as Americans and Christians is immediately apparent."

Denies Partisan Politics.

The letter denies that the Catholic church has engaged in "merely partisan politics" in Mexico, but asserts that "the church is the only defender of the country could find against assaults by the forces of materialism on civil, political, and religious liberties."

As to the charge that the church held an undue amount of land and other wealth, the bishops state that if the church in Mexico had held property valued at $1,750,000,000 it would have been no more proportionately than the wealth of the churches in the United States, but that as a matter of fact Catholic church property in Mexico was worth only $175,000,000, and the highest estimate by enemies of the church was only $250,000,000.

Bandits Hold Up Holy Stairs.

Paul Frank, owner of a shoe store at 2323 West Madison street, and his clerk, Louis Block, were held up last night by three bandits who escaped with $120.

When the Mexican government appeals to the American people for approval of its course in this matter, it asks us," say the bishops. "to con-

$100,000 COULD BRIBERY TRIAL RECORDS DUG UP

Evidence May Cost Maine
Senator His Seat.

Answers from the only known existing copy of the official transcript of Mr. Gould's evidence:

Q.—Wasn't it $100,000? A.—Don't you know it was? Of course that was the amount.

Q.—Did you give that amount of money to Mr. Flemming himself? A.—Not all of it.

Q.—Did you pay it as a result of an arrangement made between you and Mr. Flemming? A.—I agreed with Mr. Flemming.

Q.—When did you agree? A.—Some time in the fall of 1911.

A Campaign Contribution.

In answer to a later question Mr. Gould replied "I think I had consented to a contribution before the contract was signed. At another juncture he said that before the contract was signed he was told he "would be expected to contribute."

Judge McKewen decided that "the claimants have no rights which should be recognized or enforced in any court or before any arbitrator, because the contract is void by reason of the act of bribery committed by Arthur R. Gould during the negotiations for the building of the road between the province and the railway company."

Mr. Gould said during his recent election campaign in Maine that the payment was not "bribery," but "blackmail." His evidence has been quoted in past election campaigns in New Brunswick by opponents of the Flemming party to show that the payment of $100,000 was then regarded by Mr. Gould as having been forced.

Young Simonson was awarded first prize in an automobile tire naming contest, and was tendered the money at a banquet in Chicago last night. Simonson's name for the new tire was Allstate. ## HEAD OF NURSES' REGISTRY SAYS PAY IS JUSTIFIED

Skill Earns It, Is Reply to Medical Society.

Attacking the problem instead of solving it, the medical society is the only solution that can be found to reduce the high price of nursing, according to Miss Abrens, executive secretary of the Chicago Nurses' Registry. Her statement yesterday was aimed at the Chicago Medical Society, which on Tuesday night made public plans to operate its own nurses' registry and cut the cost to the patient.

"Nurses themselves are entitled to whatever money they can earn," Miss Abrens declared, upholding the fee of $10 for a 12 hour day. "Members of our organization must spend years of study and practice and be able in their profession."

Claims Pay Is Justified.

"Women of today are coming into nursing heretofore denied them, but it must be admitted they are making good. Nursing is one of their jobs. If they do it right and prepare themselves properly for the work, then they are justified in asking that their time be limited to 12 hour days and their pay be at least $10."

"The solution of the problem probably lies in the group plan, which the doctors say is something they wish to initiate. The Nurses' club has been making this plan since last summer in home nursing and we are trying to apply it to hospital work as well."

Miss Abrens branded as unjust the demands of the Medical Society that nurses work 24 hours a day. She pointed out that cases keep nurses busy much less than the average number of working days in a year, and consequently keep their incomes, even under their present scale, between $1,200 and $1,500 a year.

Nurses Firm, She Says.

"The doctors point out that we used to work 24 hours a day for $25 a week," she said. "We might ask the doctors what percentage their fees have increased in recent years. Surely, ours has been much less." That the Nurses' club would abide

Aldermen Clash in Council Over Anti-McAndrew War

May we suggest

Two proposals, one to abolish the present board of education, creating a substitute, the other to appoint a special auditor to go over that board's books, brought the attacks on Supt. McAndrew and school finances before the city council yesterday. The council agreed to have the audit.

The plan to change the school board only aroused a storm. Telling the council its school committee ought to mind its own business, half a dozen aldermen tried to have the council bring the controversy to an end and get action on confirmation or rejection of those persons whom Mayor Dever has appointed to the board of education.

School control is vested by law in a board of education, asserted Ald. Jacob Arvey (34th).

If action on Mayor Dever's new board appointees is not taken before next Wednesday, Ald. Arvey announced, he will call for a roll call and bring the question to a showdown on the floor of the council.

"It's high time somebody was talking this school committee what its duties are," Ald. Arvey continued.

Ald. Guy Guernsey (8th) supported Ald. Arvey, saying the committee "can find plenty of work to be done on its own side of the fence." Ald. Leo M. Brieske (49th), chairman of the schools committee, however, declared after the council session, that committee would go ahead. It meets today at 10:30 a. m. Invitations have been sent to those Dever named—Dr. O. L. Schmidt, Walter Raymer, Charles Vopicka, and Mrs. W. S. Steffens, who is to succeed herself—after that meeting. Supt. McAndrew will be heard at a later session.

Ald. Oscar Nelson (45th) proposed abolition of the present board of education and the substitution of a board of five $10,000 a year trustees, subject to recall by the council. At the height of the debate, with Ald. Wiley W. Mills and Arvey on their feet shouting at each other, Mayor Dever pounded for order and announced the Nelson resolution was sent to the schools committee.

Prior to the mayor's ruling, however, clashes were frequent as Ald. Nelson defended his resolution and others attacked it. Ald. Guernsey said: "The council has no business running the schools."

Ald. Nelson countered, saying three of the trustees are bankers, and a working man has no chance for appointment, adding that to some aldermen who were for home rule, "it makes no difference what kind of a school board we have."

"What about a little home rule for the school board?" Ald. Arvey retorted. "The schools committee is trying to pledge the new members to vote on a matter of fourteen months in advance. (Supt. McAndrew's term expires Feb. 1, 1928.) Now, I ask you, isn't that taking away their home rule?"

SPIKE PLAN TO CUT STRINGS ON SNOOPERS' FUND

Andrews' Spy System Is Denounced in Senate.

(Chicago Tribune From Service.)—Washington, D. C., Dec. 15.—(Special.)—Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Andrews' plan for a $500,000 prohibition snoopers' fund, without strings limiting its use or the activities of the spies he would have recruited, were definitely spiked in the senate this afternoon. A point of order raised by Senator Bruce (Dem., Md.) frustrated an attempt to slip back into the treasury department's appropriation bill the carte blanche authority for employment of undercover agents knocked out of the measure last week in the house.

Today's final defeat leaves Mr. Andrews free to employ $500,000 worth of snoopers, but forces him to account strictly for their services and the expenditure of the money before it is paid out. This is exactly what he wished to avoid and he sought to do so by devising the scheme which would have allowed him to advance funds to prohibition agents "in payment of salaries and expenses."

Open Way for Jim Reed.

Making the same point of order which was made in the house—that the clause which would permit advances from the fund violates a federal statute and in addition is an attempt to legislate in an appropriation bill—Senator Bruce opened the way for as smothering a denunciation of the "enforcement by espionage" policy from Senator Reed (Dem., Mo.) as has been delivered in congress since Mr. Andrews adopted it.

"How can we escape the proposition," demanded Senator Reed, "whether we are prohibitionists, whether we favor a spy system, that this is a new use of public money not authorized by statute? I know how proud we are to try to accomplish our duties in spite of our own rules, and indeed, we have gone so far that no man here has any respect for those rules, but a lawmaking body which cannot respect its own rules is not entitled to much respect for laws it makes for others."

Could Go to Dry League.

"If this amendment should be approved," interrupted Senator Edwards (Dem., N. J.), "this money could be given to the Anti-Saloon league, Wayne B. Wheeler, or any others of that ilk without even a pretense of accounting, could it not?"

"Certainly," interjected Senator Bruce.

"They could steal the whole amount

AUTO ACCIDENTS TAKE TWO LIVES; TOLL IS NOW 844

Two streets caused automobile accidents in which one pedestrian was killed and several other persons were injured yesterday. This death and one other raised the 1926 county motor toll to 844.

Jack Shanker, 45 years old, 2115 West 16th street, died of injuries received when struck by a motor truck near Ogden and South Albany avenues, John Osovski, 2800 North Kimball avenue, the truck driver, was held by the police.

John Campbell, 46 years old, 450 South Clark street, died at the county hospital from a fractured skull which he suffered Nov. 29 when he was struck by a taxicab while in front of his home. George Smith, 2225 West Monroe street, driver of the cab, was taken into custody.

The automobile of William Einfeldt, 181 North Grove avenue, Oak Park, turned upside down in a collision at Euclid avenue and Ontario street. Oak Park, with another car driven by J. M. Muir, 172 Gale avenue, River Forest.

Continue Case of Young Mother Held in Shooting

Because the man who is accused of shooting on Dec. 7 is still in the hospital and unable to testify, the case of Mrs. Annette Shaw, a young mother, was continued yesterday until Dec. 27 on her arraignment for assault. Mrs. Shaw is alleged to have fired at Sam Jacobson, 1408 South Avers avenue, when he visited her home during her husband's absence and threatened to hurt her baby. He is said to have been drinking, according to police.

BAN ON PARKING IN A. OF C.

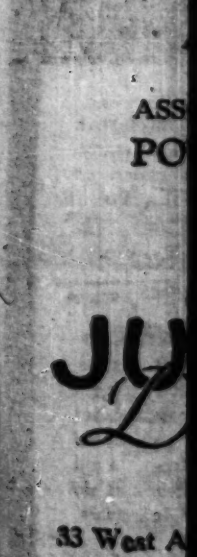

Year's Survey Goes to

The committee on the survey of the city of Chicago, which was organized last year, has today reported to the city council its findings. The report is a comprehensive study of the city's traffic conditions, and it is expected that it will lead to a number of important reforms in the city's traffic laws and regulations. The committee's findings are based on a survey of the city's traffic conditions over a period of one year, and they are expected to be of great value to the city's residents and to the city's officials.

BAN ON ALL LOOP PARKING IS ASKED IN A. OF C. REPORT

Year's Survey of Traffic Goes to Council.

A survey of traffic problems in Chicago, the Association of Commerce yesterday submitted a 292-page report to the city council, asking for a ban on all loop parking, and for a betterment of the A. of C. terms chaotic conditions in the metropolitan area. A traffic ordinance containing the suggested rules for motorists and pedestrians was proposed and the organization of a greater Chicago street traffic commission was recommended.

Mayor Dever appointed a special committee of aldermen to consider the survey and make an early report. The city council asked the Association of Commerce to undertake the traffic survey in November, 1925. The latter body appropriated $50,000 for the cost of the work and succeeded under the direction of Elmer T. Stevens, chairman of the traffic committee.

2,700,000 Visit Loop Daily. The committee faced a gigantic problem, the report stated, because in few districts in the world is there a comparable density of population and street activity such as exists in the loop on a normal business day. It was found that an average of approximately 2,700,000 persons enter or leave the loop from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. of an average weekday.

These thousands enter and leave the loop in some 315,000 vehicles, the report shows. Seventy-two per cent of these vehicles are private passenger automobiles. It was pointed out, and the committee thus turned its attention to the parking problem. It recommended no parking between 7 a. m. and 1 p. m. in the district bounded by the north by the south line of Wacker drive, on the west by the east line of Market street, on the south by the south line of Harrison street,

A. OF C. TRAFFIC REPORT PROPOSES SIX RULES TO CUT CONGESTION

New traffic rules suggested in the Association of Commerce report:

FOR MOTORISTS.

1. No parking in loop on week days between 7 a. m. and 1:30 p. m.
2. No parking during same period on any business street for longer than two hours.
3. No heavy trucks allowed in loop unless making deliveries or pick-ups of materials.
4. No turns in the middle of the block of any business street.

FOR PEDESTRIANS.

1. No crossing of intersections, except in accordance with police signals or stop and go lights.
2. No jay walking.

It is proposed to enforce the above rules by imposing a fine not to exceed $100 on violators.

and on the east by the west line of Michigan avenue.

Pedestrians at Fault.

Observers found the pedestrian much at fault, the report stated. Traffic was held up by crowds surging across intersections without regard for the signal lights. So rules were drawn up which make it illegal for pedestrians and motorists alike to disobey the stop and go lights or the directions of policemen.

Jay walking should be strictly prohibited, the report states. In business districts, where the intersections are more than 400 feet apart, crosswalks may be marked in the middle of the street where pedestrians may cross, it is recommended.

One of the greatest causes of traffic confusion in the city is the lack of coordination between departments having supervision of traffic control, the committee found. It was discovered that ordinances laid down by the city differed from those laid down by the park boards and that state laws were in conflict with both.

Wants Commission Named.

To remedy this evil, the greater Chicago street traffic commission should be appointed, the report declared. The commission should be composed of representatives of the city, the county board, and the three park boards. The commission would have the duty of developing a comprehensive system of through streets. It would endeavor to develop a plan for removing elevated pillars and other roadway obstructions. In addition, a division of traffic engineering should be made a part of the bureau of streets in order that a continuous study might be made of traffic problems and congestion, the report states.

That the traffic division of the police department should be reorganized is another recommendation contained in the report.

Asks Curb on Open Bridges.

The personnel of the division should be increased to a minimum strength of 400. All city police officers, including members of the motorcycle squad, should be under the direct supervision of the commander of the division, who should be a deputy superintendent of police with city-wide jurisdiction, the survey declares.

The committee recommended a limitation on the opening of bridges. The ultimate solution of this problem will be the adoption of some type of fixed bridge, it stated. But a limitation upon hours in which bridges may be opened should be made immediately, the report says.

ROAD BUILDERS HEAR DEBATE ON GASOLINE TAX

BY J. L. JENKINS.

Political road building in Illinois was relegated to the limbo of Chicago's old 18 foot, two lane pavements yesterday by road builder speakers at the two day convention of the Illinois Association of Highway and Municipal Contractors, in the Hotel Sherman.

More than 200 of the men who are directly responsible for building the highways paid for by more than a million automobile users in the state, were on hand to organize their work on the proposed 3 cent gasoline tax advocated by the state administration. Frank T. Sheets, engineer of the state highway department under Gov. Small, introduced the gas tax angle before contractors, who took a neutral stand.

"We are preparing to build 1,000 miles of new roads in Illinois in the next year," he said, "and we hope to be ready to take bids on 175 miles of the total on Jan. 18 of the coming year. The state highway department has been tied up for many months because of the legal clause which requires all of the mileage under the old $20,000,000 bond issue system to be completed before contracts are let on the new $100,000,000 bond issue system of roads. The legal difficulties are about over as a result of this old system practically are completed, and we are ready to proceed on new roads."

Calls $100,000,000 Too Small.

Mr. Sheets added that the funds available from the new $100,000,000 bond issue will not meet the requirements of the system provided for by the legislature and a gasoline tax of 3 cents a gallon will be needed to have the 2,500 miles of roads which were added by legislators to the original plan of 7,000 to 8,000 miles in state roads. He declared that he was opposed to cities, villages, and counties participating in this proposed additional gas tax money for road building because construction should be kept under the centralized jurisdiction of the state department.

Tails of Political Roads.

"So-called secondary roads in Illinois certainly are as worthy of being paved as the political roads that make up this extra bond issue system," he declared, "and the roads in metropolitan areas such as Chicago and St. Louis should be brought to their proper widths and traffic efficiency before we pay for political connections and the unimportant improvements of roads in this state. Our primary highways are completed now. The distribution of pavements should be allocated not by politics but by actual traffic needs and to the territories where road funds come from."

"If there is a gas tax passed it should provide that a good percentage—50 per cent, to be exact—must be returned to territories where that tax is paid in order to provide transportation for the people who pay the tax."

The Packard Six Appeals Most to the Experienced Motorist

PACKARD long ago foresaw that the car which would make the strongest appeal to experienced motorists would be a quality car sold at a fair price for quality.

Packard Six sales have proved that Packard was right. The improved Packard Six is deservedly the most popular car Packard has ever built in its twenty-seven years of fine car manufacture.

And yet the Packard Six is not an inexpensive car. It merely sells for less than any other really fine car. It should, for Packard has spent millions of dollars and years of time and effort equipping to build the Packard Six with the utmost precision and the greatest economy.

Experienced motorists—those who may have been extravagant in buying ultra-expensive cars, as well as those, equally extravagant, who have bought cheap cars frequently and worn them out quickly —find in the Packard Six the car they have always wanted to own.

In performance the Packard Six is surpassed by but one car—the Packard Eight.

In comfort, beauty and distinction it is unsurpassed by any car, American or foreign.

Those who are now buying the improved Packard Six cars expect on the average to keep them fifty-five months—nearly five years. They should and doubtless will keep these long-lived cars even longer. Therein lies the great economy of Packard ownership.

The improved Packard Six five-passenger Sedan is but $2752.00 delivered at your door, freight and tax paid. To buy out of income you pay $714.00 on delivery and $189.00 a month, including interest, insurance and all other charges. The value of your present car is deducted from the first and monthly payments.

FRANCO-ITALIAN
RUMBLINGS KEEP
EUROPE ON ALERTLondon-Rome Relations
Becoming Strained.

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
LONDON, Dec. 15.—The Italian situation still is causing European rumblings. While some expect a breach of peace, it cannot be considered that all are anxious lest some unauthorized incident may cause serious trouble.

Two rumors are being spread in London. One is that the Italian situation is becoming strained between Foreign Ministers Aristide Briand and Foreign Secretary Sir Austen Chamberlain, and at times significant. The Italian delegation, headed by Signor Ciano, is in London, but no definite settlement has arrived at.

Report that Great Britain has agreed to sell part of Kenya, in Africa, to Italy still is strenuously denied by the British foreign office, but there are indications that it may have been mentioned in the allied statesmen's discussion.

Italy Withholds Naval Invitation.
Meanwhile the situation is becoming somewhat strained between Italy and Great Britain. It was announced some time ago that the British fleet would sail for autumn maneuvers in the Mediterranean, but an official gazette announcement has not yet been published and THE TRIBUNE learns this delay is due to the failure of Italy to issue the usual invitation to the fleet to visit the Italian ports.

It is unnecessary for the British ships to do this, as there are plenty of British and French ports in the Mediterranean, where they will be welcomed, but it is preferred to preserve an appearance of cordiality, if possible.

THE TRIBUNE also learns that by Jan. 12 the entire French fleet on one pretext or another will be concentrated in the Mediterranean.

Troop Movements Continue.
In the meantime troop movements in France toward the Italian frontier continue and Premier Mussolini is said to have declared a few days ago that he had thirty divisions north of the Po river. Just how many troops this means is not known, as no one knows the actual strength of an Italian division.

Turkey is doing its best to strengthen itself with alliances which seem to be directed against both England and Italy. Within the last few days it has offered an offensive and defensive alliance to Persia on the same lines as the treaty it recently made with Afghanistan. Great Britain is now subsidizing Persia through the Anglo-Persian Oil company to the tune of $4,000,000 ($20,000,000) annually, but it will have to do even better if it wishes to keep Persia, which is threatened by Turkey, Russia, and Afghanistan, in line.

Propose $2,000,000 Bonds
to Open Michigan Avenue

An order directing the corporation counsel to prepare an ordinance to submit a proposed bond issue of $2,000,000 for opening Michigan avenue from 61st to 84th streets to a referendum next spring was adopted by the city council yesterday.

CHICAGO HOLIDAY
SHOPPING RUSH
SETS TOP RECORD

Holiday season crowds approximating those during the Eucharistic congress last summer are again tending to capacity the various city and suburban transportation lines. The throngs reached a high peak last Saturday and reports for Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday show little decrease in their numbers.

While some lines have not complied figures on the numbers that have used their trains since the rush started, all report unusual crowds, even considering the season.

A great percentage of this extra travel is finding its way into loop stores, it is found. Christmas shopping, though far from being early, is indicating a record volume.

Reports from the Chicago surface lines yesterday on passengers carried last Saturday revealed that 80,110 more fares were paid than on the last Saturday of the Eucharistic congress, which at that time set a record. Saturday's fares totaled $245,773. The grand total for the day, including transfers and complimentary rides, reached 5,008,373 on the same day. Ninety-nine per cent of the surface lines' equipment has been kept in operation since then.

The Chicago Rapid Transit company yesterday stated that travel since last Saturday has been 8 and 6 per cent above the average of a month ago.

The Burlington railroad announced that 4,000 extra passengers were handled on the suburban lines in and out of Chicago last Saturday. This number being practically duplicated during the first three days of this week. The Illinois Central and Northwestern lines also show decided gains, both in local and suburban travel, although they report that neighborhood trading is keeping many shoppers out of the loop.

ARREST FATHER
RAISING CASH FOR RUSSELL SCOTT

New York, Dec. 15.—(Special.)—Thomas Scott, father of Russell T. Scott, whose fight to escape hanging for the murder of a drug clerk in a Chicago holdup attracted wide attention, was arrested today in the lobby of the Hudson theater, charged with disorderly conduct. He was selling copies of a pamphlet written by Russell Scott to raise funds to fight his son's case.

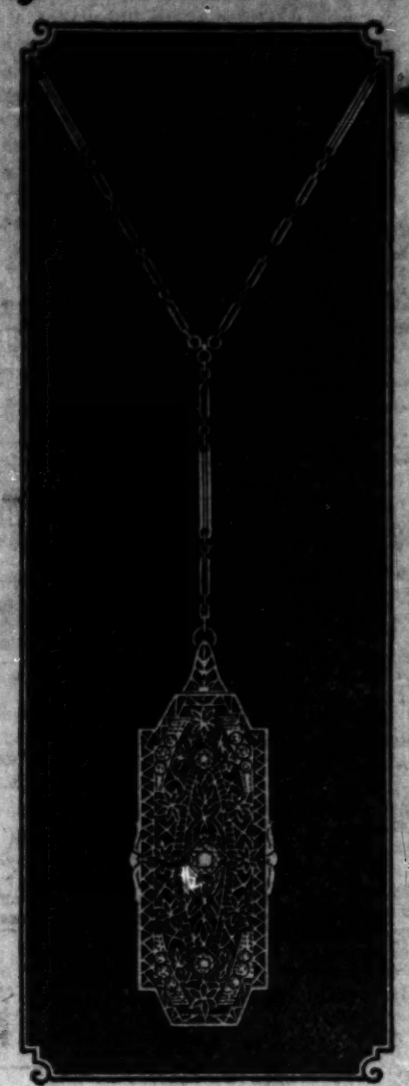

When Scott was taken to night court, however, William Byrne, assistant manager of the theater, informed Magistrate Simpson that Mrs. Henry B. Harris, owner of the theater, had asked him to withdraw the complaint. Magistrate Simpson then freed Scott and gave him $10 for four pamphlets, saying that Scott was doing only what any other parent would do for a son in trouble.

Ex-Kaiser Kept in Bed
by "Flu"; Berlin Fears

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
BERLIN, Dec. 15.—Official representatives of the former Kaiser in Berlin tonight issued a communique announcing that the former monarch is suffering from a slight attack of influenza. He was forced to remain in bed today, which increases the danger that, while the recurring attack is not dangerous at present, it may be taken as proof that the Kaiser is suffering from a chronic disease.

Husband and Wife Found
Dead in Gas Filled Room

John Wahowski, 53, and his wife, Frances, 50, of 1518 West 62nd street, were found dead in their home yesterday. Gas was escaping from the kitchen stove. The bodies were found by Mrs. Lillian M. Waki of 1441 West Ohio street, a slaver of the dead man. Wahowski was lying on a bed, and his wife on a couch, both fully clothed.

DETROIT DUMPS DEATH BREEDING FILTH INTO LAKE

Polluted Water Sends Up
Typhoid Fever Toll.

BY JOHN BOETTIGER.

(Chicago Tribune Special.)
Detroit, Mich., Dec. 15.—[Special.]—In defiance of laws, international treaties, and the rights of other communities to live and prosper, the city of Detroit has for many years sent a constant torrent of human and industrial filth into the Detroit river and Lake Erie, an investigation here reveals.

Scouring civic appeals, Detroit continues its daily pour of 225,000,000 gallons of raw sewage.
Death not only threatens humans but it is visited upon aquatic life, and the lakes system is denied, the pollution of the proud inland seas spreading miles out and meeting the sewage from Toledo, giving a general pollution from shore to shore of Lake Erie. These facts are borne out by United States and Canadian engineers.

All Sound Danger Cries.
Time and again reports from engineers, commissions and governmental forces, all sounding the danger cry, have been received by the Detroit fathers, and have been tabled.

At least seven years must pass, according to the most sanguine officials, before a substantial measure of relief can be hoped for, and prospects are evident, judged from the war on in the council, that twenty years from now will see Detroit still making a wallowing trough of the great lakes.
These are the admitted facts:
The Detroit river is emptying water from the upper lakes at the rate of 200,000 cubic feet per second.
With even that tremendous flow, the river is badly polluted and has become a civic nuisance because Detroit, with a population of 1,500,000, makes the river a sewage carrier.
The city's water supply is taken above the sewer outlets and is filtered and chlorinated.

River Is Turned Back.
Several times, however, the river has been turned back in its course by ice flows and high winds. On Feb. 25, 1915, when that occurred for a brief interval, the drinking water was fouled and Commissioner Vaughan says that 250,000 citizens became ill as a result with an intestinal ailment.

With these facts in their own experience, high officials of Detroit, together with representatives of other lake cities and of shipping interests and power barons, have argued against Chicago as follows:
That Chicago should turn its river, with all the city's sewage, back into Lake Michigan. A calamity is suggested were the Detroit river reversed for a brief period, but the state of Michigan is asking the Supreme court to force Chicago to turn its river about permanently.

That Chicago's diversion of 3,500 cubic feet per second from Lake Michigan is too much, although it is but 4 per cent the amount which Detroit finds insufficient to properly dilute its sewage.

Compromise on Lakes-Gulf Waterway Bill in Senate

Washington, D. C., Dec. 15.—[Special.]—Senate approval of the rivers and harbors bill authorizing the completion of the Illinois link of the lake to the Gulf waterway was apparently assured tonight.

Following an all day conference between congressional leaders representing Illinois and the states fighting the Illinois improvement it was announced that a compromise agreement had been reached on the wording of the provision for the Illinois item which is acceptable to both sides.

The agreement, as outlined by Representative Madden (Rep., Ill.), is supposed to settle the controversial question of whether the bill does or does not provide a water diversion from Lake Michigan.

As agreed upon the amendment which would be inserted in the bill reads:

"Provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed as authorizing any diversion of water from Lake Michigan."

No mention of diversion was made in the bill as it was presented to the senate, but opponents of the waterway contended its passage would mean sewers. And Detroit has half Chicago's population.

Great Velocity of Water.
It is also pointed out that with the construction of submerged dams in the Detroit river and the Niagara river the present great velocity of water could be reduced until the lake levels are restored, but the lakes cities, determined to war upon the Chicago diversion and the Lakes to the Gulf waterway, are seeking to prevent the building of the dams.

Detroit's sewage flows into the river from fifty sewer outlets along the river and from Connors creek, Baby creek, and the River Rouge. It has sewers. And Detroit has half Chicago's population.

Great Velocity of Water.
It is also pointed out that with the construction of submerged dams in the Detroit river and the Niagara river the present great velocity of water could be reduced until the lake levels are restored, but the lakes cities, determined to war upon the Chicago diversion and the Lakes to the Gulf waterway, are seeking to prevent the building of the dams.

Detroit's sewage flows into the river from fifty sewer outlets along the river and from Connors creek, Baby creek, and the River Rouge. It has made of a once clear stream a foul trough.

Oil and grease join with putrid wastes in spreading a scum over the river, and the revolting evidence of sewage may be seen floating down past Belle Isle, the recreational park in the river.

Typhoid epidemics that have caused heavy death tolls have been traced directly to the use of the upper river to bathe, states the report of the city's own special sewerage commission. "Even as long ago as 1916 Grosse Ile was completely enveloped by the sewage from Detroit. The number of deaths in this city that can be laid to this one cause alone can only be guessed."

Average Death Rate High.

Typhoid death tables give an indication of the problems offered. Nearly eighteen years ago, on Jan. 11, 1909, the treaty was signed by Great Britain and the United States which prohibited either nation from polluting boundary waters.

Ten years ago the international joint commission reported the Detroit violation as a menace.

And through all these years Detroit's guiding fathers have scorned remedy, and have gone on sending poisonous wastes to its neighboring cities down river and out into Lake Erie.

Now the health officials ask the city to build an intercepting sewer, so that all the city's sewage may be dumped at one point downstream.

The plan which is sponsored by many civic leaders and which recommends the installation of intercepting sewers to carry all the sewage to a disposal plant for treatment.

The program involves an expenditure of $20,000,000, extending over seven years. The proposed plant would skim the floating wastes, and provide for the settling of solids in limbo tanks.

COMPANIES OFFER PLANS TO SUPPLY SUBURBS' WATER

After a delay of several weeks the Illinois commerce commission yesterday resumed hearings on the petitions of two companies for approval of their plans to pipe water from Lake Michigan to towns within a thirty mile radius of Chicago. It is expected the commission will give a decision on the matter within a few weeks.

The city of Chicago has filed an intervening petition with the commission which proposes a plan similar to that of the private companies. The Greater Chicago Lake Water Supply company and the Municipal Water Supply company of Illinois are the firms seeking the commission's consent to function as public utilities.

LONDON TALKS TO N. Y. FROM PHONE BOOTH IN STORE

New York, Dec. 15.—[Special.]—Experiments with the trans-Atlantic wireless telephones have reached the stage where connections with London have been made from the ordinary telephone booth. On the last three Sundays London engineers working on the wireless telephones have used store booths to talk to New York.

They have called the telephone central and been connected with the office doing the experimental work, and from there have been looped into the wireless station and so across the ocean, where the messages have been taken from the air and put on a land wire for transmission to their destination.

Only one speaker can talk at once in either direction.

What Real Estate Men Think of Tribune Want Ads

REALTORS! TAKE NOTICE!
"I had 50 replies from my Tribune Want Ad. I rented 3 furnished and 14 unfurnished apartments in two weeks through a Tribune Want Ad. My best lease was made through Tribune Want Ads."—W. B. Barry, 6724 Cornell avenue.

"We are very much pleased with the results from a Tribune Want Ad which we used recently to advertise 120 feet of frontage. From one insertion of this ad we procured a purchaser, immediately."—Robert A. Rogers of North & Rogers, Real Estate, 410 E. 55th street.

I AM CONVINCED THAT THE TRIBUNE HAS NO EQUAL
"I am convinced that The Tribune has no equal as an advertising medium. In one week I sold a building located at 6411 S. Marshfield three times through the Tribune Want Ad. I also sold through only one ad, a fifteen apartment building at 40th and Marshfield and got several additional good prospects. I could cite many other instances."—John W. Blair, Real Estate, 6277 Ashland avenue.

"We recently ran a Tribune Want Ad to rent a 25 apartment building. With this one ad, which was inserted three times, we rented 14 of the apartments. We have used The Tribune exclusively since we have been in business."—Miss L. Orin of the John D. Austin Co., 6324 Cottage Grove avenue.

"We have run Want Ads for tenants every day since our hotel opened on August 4th. We are now over 75% rented. We are using The Tribune exclusively, as we find it brings us a very high type of permanent guest from Chicago and nearby cities."—A. D. Rosenberg, University Hotel, 5519 Blackstone avenue.

"Our business relations with The Chicago Tribune cover a period of nearly a half century, during which time we have had wonderful success in securing tenants, selling properties and in securing employees. We have advertised in nearly every issue of The Tribune for years."—L. M. Smith & Bro., Real Estate, 3947 Cottage Grove avenue.

"There were 13 vacant apartments in a 24 apartment building which we recently took over. We advertised these apartments for rent in the Want Ad Section of The Tribune over a period of three weeks and, in spite of the fact it was not a renting season, we were successful in obtaining tenants for EVERY ONE of these apartments."—William E. Apple, Real Estate, 6277 Ashland avenue.

FALL-DOHENY JURY LOCKED UP AFTER 7 HOURS

by Attorneys.

Robert yesterday by Hogan. It was not true, he said, that the government had suppressed evidence or distorted it—they had merely performed a hard duty, at the request of the President, in a lawyer-like manner. They had not attacked Mrs. Doherty, as intimated by Hogan. That, he said, was not the first attempt in a criminal case to hide behind pettiness.

"Whatever the result," he said, "there is no question of the utter improbability of the relations that existed between Fall and Doherty."

Harding Didn't Know.
"Is there any man who can say that Warren Harding approved these acts that he did not know about—any evidence that he knew of the $100,000 his cabinet officer had borrowed from Doherty—that he knew this property was so valuable that Doherty boasted he would make $100,000 out of it?"

"Warren Harding was my friend and my President and yours. I deeply regret that they disgrace his tomb—tear away his shroud to cover the infamy of their transactions."

"If Harding were called from the great beyond, I think I can see the pained expression on his face when he knew what his cabinet minister had done."

"If he appeared here in spirit the defendants would fall dead with fright—after making such suggestions as that."

Loan Is Called Bribe.

The $100,000 transaction was characterized by Pomeroy as a bribe. "But it does not need to have been a bribe to justify conviction. A loan serves the same purpose, if this was a conspiracy along the lines indicated."

"There was one master mind for the government—Fall—and there was Doherty, with his uncounted millions, rich as Croesus, with that greed for more money which money breeds. The whole thing was conceived in fraud, born in iniquity."

The great war scare of the defense reminded Mr. Pomeroy of the Three Tailors of Tooty street crying, "We are the people of England." Here were Fall and Doherty and Admiral Robison, he said, saying, "We are the patriots of the United States—we are going to protect the government and all its possessions."

Mr. Pomeroy made much of the letter written by Fall to the senate committee in which he said he had never approached Doherty or Sinclair, or their agents, for money. If innocent, why this lie? he asked.

Ridiculous War Talk.

"Was this country in danger?" he asked. "Secretary Wilbur was here and refused to produce certain correspondence because he said it would be incompatible with the country's interest. That's all. On Nov. 12, 1921, the arms conference met and agreed on the four power pact. On Dec. 13, 1921, the senate adopted it. March 24, 1922, a month before the Doherty contracts for Pearl Harbor were signed, the treaty was signed. Did you hear of any war activities while this conference was in session? The only one I knew of was the one superintended by Fall and Doherty."

The naval disarmament treaty was signed Feb. 6, 1922, and ratified March 29, 1922. This was to keep navies in limits and destroy certain battleships. Would that have been done if there had been any danger?

"No, that won't do. There is no doubt the $100,000 was passed; that proposition was going on at the time, and that Doherty got his reserve. It is not the United States naval reserve now. It is Doherty's reserve. Isn't there a connection? Must this go unpunished? Suppose it was recognized as proper. What effect would it have on government? It would not be the last time rich men would make loans to impudently officers. It is the most insidious, dangerous kind of corruption that can befall any government."

Sinclair Shares Drop.

New York, Dec. 15.—(Special.)—A large block of common stock of the Mammoth Oil company, organized in 1923 by the H. P. Sinclair, interests to operate the Tropic Dome oil reserves, sold at auction today for less than 3 cents a share. The sale at this figure was considered in Wall street as establishing the almost utter worthlessness of securities which were bought a few months ago at more than $50 a share with high hopes of tremendous profits.

Henry Doherty Gets 1926

Goncourt Prize for Novel

(Copyright, 1926, by the New York Times.)

PARIS, Dec. 15.—The Goncourt prize for the year's best novel was awarded today to Henry Doherty for his volume, "Le Supplément de Phèdre."

"Le Supplément de Phèdre" is a rather daring book which analyzes the psychology of a woman who discovers she is giving way to a forbidden love and has the strength of character to renounce it and flee from the man she otherwise would have followed. A jury composed of women writers today awarded Charles Spivack the "Femina" prize for his novel, "Prodige du Cœur."

VATICAN LABOR ROW RENEWED AS POPE RAISES PAY

ROME, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Labor troubles have again broken out in the Vatican. The agitation among minor employees of the holy see, based upon discontent over the appropriation of the new wage increases, culminated this evening with the report that Magr. Samperi, papal major domo and prefect of the apostolic palaces, had tendered his resignation to the pope after a special meeting of high prelates.

The Vatican denied that Magr. Samperi had tendered his resignation or that there would be any change among the Vatican officials. The report, however, was given wide circulation and caused a stir in ecclesiastical circles, because for a long time Magr. Samperi has been mentioned as a possibility for the college of cardinals.

Discontent among the minor Vatican employees has been manifest for several months, but it seemed to have disappeared in a measure recently after the pope granted wage increases, with the provision that these should be retroactive. A few days ago, however, discontent broke out anew, when a group of workers refused to accept the wage arrears handed to them by the administration of the apostolic palaces. They declared those entrusted with the task of distribution had failed to carry out the work properly, and did not consider the foreman of the laborers, although expressly ordered to do so by the pontiff.

WHAT DO I LACK? CRIES LABOR M. P.; BRAINS! TORY GIBE

LONDON, Dec. 15.—(AP)—David Kirkwood, free Scotch Labor member of parliament who likes to call a spade a spade, has come a cropper in the house of commons. His fall is giving his political friends and foes alike a chuckle.

It happened during a discussion on the appointment of two judges with Indian experience on the judicial committee of the privy council at £2,000 ($10,000) a year.

Mr. Kirkwood thought this was far too much and didn't mince his words. "What have these judges got I haven't?" he roared.

"Brains!" came a stentorian voice from the Conservative benches. Parliament adjourned today for the Christmas holidays.

POPE O.K.S FIGHT AGAINST FRENCH WAR ON CHURCH

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

PARIS, Dec. 15.—Cardinal Gasparri in a letter dated Nov. 23, addressed to Gen. Castelnau, one of France's world war leaders, expresses the pope's approval of the general's action in organizing the French Catholics in combat against church tendencies in politics.

With Catholic privileges menaced by the French government in Alsace and Lorraine as well as in other parts of France, Gen. Castelnau engaged in an active campaign to organize French Catholics especially in Brittany. He is also spreading propaganda in the regained provinces, to arouse opinion against the socialist's professed policy of "separation of the church and state."

Cardinal Gasparri declares the Vatican's sale arm; indeed, is to unite all right minded men for the defense of religion, putting aside all divergences of differences purely of a political nature which separates them.

WARD MILLIONS GO INTO ACTION FIGHTING ILLNESS

Serve Humanity, Science at Northwestern.

JAMES O'DONNELL BENNETT, president of the Northwestern University Medical Association, said today that the university's new hospital, the Ward Memorial building, is the largest and most modern in the world. It is a masterpiece of architecture and a landmark in the history of medicine.

The new hospital, which cost $10,000,000, is a masterpiece of architecture and a landmark in the history of medicine. It is a masterpiece of architecture and a landmark in the history of medicine. It is a masterpiece of architecture and a landmark in the history of medicine.

Quick Action on Gift.
There was a gift more expeditiously delivered into action.

Three years ago yesterday the late Mrs. Ward communicated these words to the president and trustees of Northwestern University:
"It is my belief that Chicago, situated as it is in the center of a district richest in agricultural and natural resources in the United States, is destined to become a very great city, including in its greatness prominent centers for all forms of philanthropic and educational institutions."

Words Backed by Facts.
These were not mere "fanciful musings" as the good Dr. John R. Ward, great surgeon and sincere writer of Queen Anne's time, used to call idle talk, however well meant.
Mrs. Ward punctuated her words with an immediate three millions. Then five millions. Accretions brought the total to eight millions. They went into buildings and endowments.
Last July Mrs. Ward returned to Chicago from California, the hand of death heavy upon her. She was borne to the train on a stretcher. She died before she was taken past the new memorial to her husband on Northwestern's Chicago campus. That was the only view of the completed building she ever had. The next day she was dead.

she had enriched bent with ardor to the task of working out to the last practical detail the ideals of service she and they had shared. Those ideals are interlocking. The brief phrases "for the poor" and "for science" mutually define them.

But the gloom and rigor of highly institutionalized charity do not envelop the work.
How Endowment Works.
An afflicted man enters.
"I've heard," he says, "that you tell a fellow the truth. I've got a family of four children—and I can't afford to die. And I can't afford a doctor. I'm a truckman. This heart trouble has put me out. Can I work again? Have I got to die? I want to pay a little. I still can. But tell me the truth."

That patient, in his forlornness and in his self-respect, is highly illustrative.
Mark the item of the four children. They have not reached wage earning age. With their father "out," as he put it, the family will sooner or later be broken up.
That prospect hits dean and faculty hard. They will make no concessions to it.

Dean Cutter, the school's new administrator, summed up the intolerable situation of the prospect thus:
"Concerning the importance of preserving the integrity of the family there can be no argument. There is no argument. The virtue and happiness of a nation depend upon it."
So this happens.
The truckman with an overstrained heart—or perhaps a torturing, incapacitating hernia—is put on a register.

men. Perhaps an operation is necessary. Meanwhile his employer is reached. If it is a heart case the doctors say to the employer:
"Look here! People with organic heart trouble can be useful for years and years if they are instructed and conserved. Your man can't do heavy lifting or wheel heavy barrows and live. We can keep him going six, eight, possibly ten years if you will help us. There are four children. If this man dies now a family will be broken up. Help us by giving him lighter work and his children will be wage earners and able to take care of him before the final break comes. Meanwhile it is vital to keep him alive and earning."

Dean Cutter—who is a crisp speaking New Hampshire Yankee and no "fisculous" sentimentalist—told me that the response of employers to the arguments—they are not appeals—of the doctors is most gratifying. "Not only is their sense of what is decently humane stirred, but the sound economics of the argument move them to helpful cooperation."

Filling the Smaller Purses.
Always the effort is to get away from charity. A man said—indeed, many men say—"Here I am, earning a little. I want to pay a little." His self-respecting impulse is not brushed aside. It is encouraged not because it substantially benefits the school but because it substantially benefits him. So a little budget based on his little earnings is drawn up. He and the doctors gravely agree that he can pay, say 10 cents a visit, perhaps 25. Once a handler of heavy freight, incapacitated by hernia, was restored to health and work at a total cost to him of $15. "And today," said Dean Cutter, "he feels like a new man. He's so happy that he sings his gratitude. If he had a million dollars he would give us half of it. And he never was anybody's charity patient!"

That is one of the things that is great in spirit and sound in economics about this work. It is restoring the man still potentially productive—not merely patching derelicts and drifters. I was six hours with the doctors. Some of the marvels they showed me and the ideals of service they defined will make another article.

TWO WIVES WIN DIVORCES AND LARGE ALIMONY

Two wives of well-to-do husbands obtained divorce decrees and large alimony awards in Chicago's courts yesterday.
Mrs. Jennie Beak was given $70,000 and $75 a week for the support of her child, Eugene, when she obtained a divorce before Judge George F. Rush from Kurt R. Beak, former real estate operator here, now said to be living in Florida. Mrs. Beak accused her husband of having fallen in love with another woman, with whom he lived in Tampa, Fla., for a time.
Mrs. Josephine Sheritt, 330 Oxford road, Kenilworth, charged that Frank Sheritt, official of the Murphy Varned company, 602 West Lake street, had been habitually intoxicated for a number of years. She was given the custody of two children, Frank and Joan, and $500 a month alimony.

INDICT ORMISTON ON COAST AS HE PUTS OFF ARREST

Court Appearance Here
Set for Tomorrow.

BY GENEVIEVE FORBES HERRICK.
Kenneth G. Ormiston somehow just didn't feel like getting himself arrested yesterday. So he put it off until tomorrow. Tomorrow morning at 11, to be precise.

He had a cold. It was cold. And besides, he wasn't in town.

This trio of explanations, given out variously and variously yesterday by his lawyer, Attorney Edward H. S. Martin, were in turn denied by the same counsel, who said he'd really rather not discuss the matter. Later, however, he admitted that Chief of Police Collins had told him, over the telephone, that Ormiston just simply couldn't keep his police date because he wasn't in town.

Date Set for Tomorrow.

"As a matter of fact," Attorney Martin explained to the chief, "I haven't seen Mr. Ormiston since last Monday. He's away for a few days. But he'll be here Friday morning. Let's say at 11 sharp, in your office, Mr. Chief."

Chief Collins, busy with a captain's meeting and many other details of local administrative work, didn't suffer any heart palpitation when he learned that he was to be denied sight of the former radio operator for another 48 hours.

"It's a bit ironic," the chief pointed out, "that California authorities should ask Chicago officials to stop their regular business to pull chestnuts out of the fire for Los Angeles."

Collins Sees Something Wrong.

"Now, if Mr. Aaa Keyes, district attorney at Los Angeles, was really so zealous to get Mr. Ormiston in connection with the Albee McPherson case, it seems reasonable to suppose that he might have jumped on a train that night he was in Philadelphia, ridden to Chicago, and taken charge of proceedings himself."

"It looks to me as if somebody, maybe a lot of somebodies, is asking Chicago to pour water over the wheel for a journalistic enterprise."

While Ormiston, through his lawyer, was breaking dates yesterday, out in Los Angeles the grand jury was breaking a precedent. Departing from its ordinary custom of merely holding over a person to the Superior court, the jury, after hearing evidence of Ormiston's alleged ten day sojourn with Albee McPherson in the underground at Carmel by the Sea, is reported to have voted an indictment against the radio operator.

200 MEET TODAY TO PUSH FIGHT FOR HOME RULE

Resolved to smash state control of public utilities, mayors and officials of seventy Illinois cities will gather here today to lay final plans for their home rule campaign in the legislature next January. The conference, to be held at the Hotel Sherman, is expected to draw between 200 and 300 delegates.

"This session, being the last before the legislature convenes, will be especially important," explained Corporation Counsel Busch, who is Chicago's leader in the home rule movement. "I believe it will be one of the most significant gatherings of its kind ever held in Illinois."

The cities to be represented are members of the Illinois Municipalities conference on home rule for public utilities, an organization formed by the Illinois Municipalities league for the purpose of fostering action on a cooperative home rule campaign.

JAIL CASE MAY GO TO JURY TODAY ON COUP BY DEFENSE

Hoffman Lawyers End
Case Suddenly.

The Hoffman-Druggan-Lake jail case, expected to consume at least another week in Federal Judge Louis Rudenberg's court, probably will go to the jury today. Sudden termination of the trial came as the result of a surprise move by attorneys for all of the defendants in closing their case following the testimony of witnesses for Sheriff Peter M. Hoffman.

As a result of the defense tactics Terry Druggan and Frank Lake, beer barons who made their confessions of Cook county jail bribery before Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson a year ago, will not be put to the expected test of again telling of wholesale bribes they claim to have passed out for comfort in the jail and freedom outside.

Tells Heavy Duties of Office.

Among the county officials to take the stand for the sheriff was George Webster, assistant sheriff, who told of the great burden on the shoulders of the office, among other things, must patrol 400 miles of county highways, make an average of 3,400 arrests a year, recover an average of 450 stolen cars, serve 280,000 writs and subpoenas, and receive 13,000 prisoners annually at the jail, which has an average daily population of 800 inmates.

Defense lawyers, who made their closing arguments to the jury centered their attacks on former Jail Warden Wesley H. Westbrook, who turned government witness.

Unproved, Erbsstein Says.

Attorney Charles E. Erbsstein was chosen by his colleagues to put on the finishing touches in outlining to the jury the claimed failure of the prosecution to show that Sheriff Hoffman, Druggan, Lake, and five former jail officials listed as defendants committed crimes, which enabled the two-bootleggers to roam from the jail at will while they were supposed to be serving federal sentences.

COOLIDGE URGED TO BRING NAVY TO TREATY LIMIT

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Washington, D. C., Dec. 15.—(Special.)—Sharp disagreement with the administration proposal to suspend naval construction pending a second international arms limitation conference was expressed directly to President Coolidge today. The house naval affairs committee in a letter appealed to the executive for his sanction for immediate action to build the navy up to the limit fixed in the 1921 treaty.

By unanimous vote the committee sent Representative Butler (Rep., Pa.), their chairman, to the White House with the letter drafted by Representatives Andrew (Rep., Mass.), and Coyne (Rep., Pa.). The procedure sets a precedent and the letter itself, although its details were kept secret, is described by members as one of "utmost importance to the country."

The letter is the result of the committee's discovery that the budget bureau's estimates for naval construction during the coming year make no provision for completion of the 1921 cruiser building program or for the building of the two dirigibles authorized by congress at the last session. Approximately $500,000,000 would be required. It is estimated, to bring the

About Claude Neon Tube Signs

Claude Neon Lights, Inc., are the sole owners of the American patent rights of the world-famous tube lighting system of the French inventor, Georges Claude. Claude Neon Tube Signs, irrespective of atmospheric conditions, are the most penetrating, efficient, economical and forceful signs ever produced. Their visibility is about three times that of an ordinary bulb light. They are effective during the daylight business hours as well as in the evening and night. Individual trade marks and displays are accurately reproduced in a choice of colors. The maintenance cost of Claude Neon Tube Lights is extremely low, and the consumption of electric current is only a small percentage of that required for ordinary bulb lights.

Warning

ELECTRICAL NEON TUBE SIGNS are fully protected by patents Nos. 1,125,476, 1,131,910, 1,169,664, 1,191,495 and 1,231,494 which were granted by the United States Patent Office to Georges Claude, of Paris, France. These United States patents have been assigned to Claude Neon Lights, Inc., of New York, who, subject to certain licenses granted by it, is the exclusive owner thereof.

All types of so-called "luminous tube lights," "void lights" and lights "without a filament" which are in commercial use today for outdoor display sign purposes embody the fundamental principles and discoveries of Georges Claude, fully protected in the United States by the patents above referred to.

The manufacture, the use, and the sale by others of the types of Neon signs above referred to are not only unauthorized but a violation of the exclusive patent rights of Claude Neon Lights, Inc. and its licensees. Warning is hereby given that infringers, both manufacturers and users, will be prosecuted. Suits for infringement have already been instituted in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles against unauthorized manufacturers of tube lights.

Claude Neon Tube Lighting Displays are being used by such nationally known institutions as Willys-Overland Automobiles, EverReady Batteries, Burroughs Adding Machines, Chevrolet, Paige-Jewett, Studebaker, Loft Candies, Marcus Loew's Theatres, Colgate, and John Ward Shoes; The Daily Mail and Coliseum in London; The Opera and Folies Bergere in Paris.

In Chicago

Arrangements are now under way for the establishment of Claude Neon Factories in the City of Chicago. Meanwhile inquiries for detailed information and booklets may be directed to the New York Office.

Factories and offices are at present operated in New York, Boston, Detroit, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Oakland, Havana, Toronto, London, Paris, and other continental cities. It is the pioneer and only genuine manufacturer in the United States of practical and commercial luminous tube display signs.

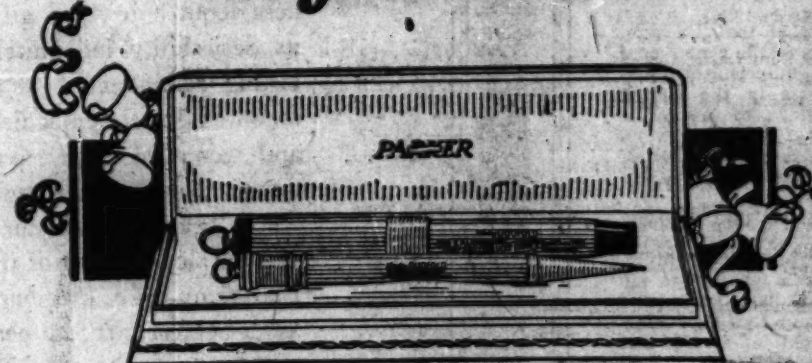

In Paris, thousands of Claude Neon Tube Displays cover a wide variety of uses. All commercial types of tube signs for outdoor purposes, now in use by advertisers, both in the United States and Europe, embody the fundamental principles and discoveries of Georges Claude, which are fully protected by patents in all of the leading countries.

U. S. TRAINS GUNS ON CHINESE TO FREE YANK SHIPS

British Navy Craft Back American Ultimatum.

BY JOHN POWELL.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
(Copyright: 1926: By The Chicago Tribune.)
SHANGHAI, China, Dec. 15.—Gen. Yang Sen, the Szechwanese military leader responsible for the Wanshan trouble last September which resulted in the deaths of seven British naval officers and several hundred Chinese, today issued three American cargo boats to transport his troops. He was stopped by the American gunboat Elcano, the commander of which demanded the immediate release of the cargo boats. The commander reported that American gunboats were trained on the Chinese troops awaiting the expiration of the ultimatum.

Gen. Yang Sen recently moved his troops from Wanshan down the river toward Hankow to attack the Cantonese, but met defeat at the town of Shihai, about 200 miles west of Hankow. In order to transport his troops back up the river, Gen. Yang Sen asked the American steamers and loaded on his troops, causing the ultimatum of the American naval forces.

British Stand by U. S.

British naval forces also are standing by with the gunboats Cricket and Ochechar, ready to help enforce the ultimatum.

The report is causing uneasiness here owing to fear of disturbances similar to those at Wanshan.

Walter Adams, American consul at Chungking, whose home is in Charleston, S. C., fearing for the safety of the American missionaries in Szechwan province, has asked the American state department to warn the missionaries to leave Szechwan immediately. It is feared any new outbreak will imperil the lives of women and children.

Prepares to Fight Invaders.

SHANGHAI, Dec. 15.—(P)—To halt the advance of Cantonese forces upon Shanghai, Marshal Sun Chuan-Fang's troops are reported to have cut the railroad near Sungkiang, twenty miles southwest of this city, in preparation for a stand against the invaders.

Hangchow, a city of 800,000, is said to have fallen into Cantonese hands, Chekiang province, of which Hangchow is the capital, is reported to have declared its independence of the control of Marshal Sun Chuan-Fang, eastern China's overlord, and in favor of government by the people themselves.

LOWDEN PRESIDENTIAL BOOM GETS AIRING IN HOT DEBATE IN HOUSE

Washington, D. C., Dec. 15.—(Special.)—Frank O. Lowden's presidential boom was given an airing today during debate on the agricultural bill in the house.

Representative Dickinson (Rep., Ill.), advocating farm relief legislation similar to the new McNary bill, referred to the former Illinois governor as a leading champion of the measure.

Representative Howard (Dem., Neb.), who construed Mr. Dickinson's references to Mr. Lowden as an effect a presidential boom, asked the Iowa representative if his candidate were not a little beyond the desirable age for a President. Mr. Dickinson retorted that the two term limit for Presidents was of more concern to the American people than the age of a President.

Representative Dickinson asserted that the McNary farm relief bill "is not price fixing unless the protective tariff is price fixing."

"The necessity for this legislation is becoming more apparent with each crop season," said Mr. Dickinson. "One year it is depression in wheat, the next in cattle, the next in hogs, the next in corn, and this year in oats and cotton."

10,000 CHRISTIANS IN INDIA GO BACK TO HINDU FAITH

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
HILLSBOURA, India, Dec. 15.—About 10,000 Christians were restored to the Hindu faith here yesterday at a huge mass ceremony.

Several swamis of the Hindu mission came for the purpose, while local preachers and officials worked day and night for two nights to assure the success of the ceremonies. Miss Forrester, an Englishwoman, secretary to Mahatma Gandhi, as well as the superintendent of police and his wife witnessed the function.

The movement to win back Hindus who have turned Christian is gaining ground. The Hindu Sabha organization to combat Christianity's spread started some years ago to bring back Hindus. In the Mohali riots in 1920 thousands of Hindus were forced to embrace Mohammedanism.

The men had been charged with a more serious offense, but the jury, after deliberating for two hours, found the defendants guilty of the lesser one.

Omaha, Neb., Dec. 15.—(P)—Two brothers, accused of being the men who held up the Modale, Ia. Savings bank after shooting up the town and wounding two men, fell into the grip of a squad of Omaha police this afternoon.

The men, Dave and Ray Hardy, 40 and 31, were arrested as they drove up to their room in a taxicab.

After the holdup, in which Robert Samman, bank cashier, and Taft Jackson, passerby, were wounded, the two men fired a fusillade of shots in the street, fled in an automobile, eluded posses, and escaped across the Missouri river on the ice.

Wacker Drive, as it may appear in the near future, when its 3,300 feet of new business frontage is built up. This thoroughfare gives a new traffic outlet for Wabash, State, Dearborn, Clark, La Salle, Wells, Franklin, Lake, and Randolph streets, on to a spacious boulevard bordering the river and connecting with North Michigan Avenue at the bridge. The lower level of the Drive—used mainly for heavy trucking—connects with several new streets serving the dock, warehouse, and manufacturing district of the near North Side.

What was Old South Water Street—Now a Great Thoroughfare

CHICAGO is changing fast, but no change in all its history equals the transformation of old South Water Street into a modern boulevard, with a frontage of buildings rivaling that of Michigan Boulevard itself. Architects, civic authorities and property owners are working together to harmonize building design and make an imposing river front. Buildings already erected are of a size and architectural beauty to afford new glory to Chicago's skyline.

Will relieve congested Loop
Wacker Drive, with its upper and lower traffic levels, will greatly relieve congestion in and through the Loop. It will form the new northern boundary and absorb an immense volume of east and west travel. It is estimated that the removal of the South Water Street Produce Market to West 14th Street has eliminated one-sixth of all vehicles from the Loop.

It costs almost as much to move a ton of merchandise across the congested Loop by wagon or truck as it does to transport it by rail for a thousand miles. That is a serious handicap for Chicago business, which the new drive should materially lessen.

WEALTH for the Next Generation

BEHIND this imposing sweep of civic improvement lies a financial structure to support it—the accumulated property of countless well-to-do citizens who have toiled and saved, to protect their own families.

In the conservation of this property, The Northern Trust Company is playing an important part. It has been identified with the estates of many of Chicago's prominent men, as well as hundreds of estates of moderate size. Its experience has been acquired through almost forty years of service as executor, trustee, agent and custodian of securities.

BY FRANK SCHREIBER.

The Chicago Blackhawks are within one point of the leadership of the American division of the National Hockey league. Sighting in their best form, the Hawks trounced the New York Rangers, 6 to 2, last night before more than 5,000 spectators at the Coliseum rink.

The team play of the Chicago squad showed the greatest improvement that has been noted in the local this season. The players worked together in a smooth, orderly fashion and the game was one of the fastest staged on the Coliseum rink.

New York Has Weak Defense. New York put up a hard fight in the opening period, but the Hawks by superior speed and a great display of stick handling drove home three of their six goals in this session and led, 3 to 1, after that the Rangers seemed to lose heart and their play was ragged as the battle waned. The size of the rink seemed to handicap the Rangers.

Capt. Dick Irvin started the scoring for the Hawks in the first minutes of the opening period, when he drove up the rink with Mickey McKay and smashed the rubber into the net. Then for ten minutes the play dragged, both teams putting up their best defense and neither taking chances. George Hay finally broke loose and worked the puck between New York's defense men to shoot the second goal. Immediately New York counterattacked and with four men in front of the Hawks' net, Willie Cook knocked Richard Lehman, Chicago's goal keeper, down, and drove home a goal.

In the final session New York played four men on its attacking line in an attempt to score.

It was Mickey McKay, however, who drew the spectators the big thrill of the night. McKay got the puck behind the Hawks' goal net and then skated the length of the rink, rushing from side to side to pass New York's defense. Three feet in front of the Rangers' goal, McKay faked a shot to the left of the net, drawing Goalkeeper Chabot out of position, and then shot the puck home.

Willie Cook counted New York's final goal three minutes before the game ended, but it didn't cause a ripple of interest among the fans.

C. A. A. HOCKEY TEAM TO PLAY N. DAME MONDAY
The Chicago Athletic association hockey team of the Chicago Senior amateur league will play Notre Dame University on the Coliseum rink Monday night. It was announced yesterday by C. A. A.

The Cherry Circle club sextet has been practicing for top speed, while New York played one league game defeating Chicago Yacht club team, 6 to 1.

Among the players on this year's Notre Dame hockey squad is Bud Schneider, who gained a place on Walter Eckersall's All-American football team as a center position. Boeringer played a defense post on the Notre Dame team.

Six Illinois Race Tracks
Organize Governing Body

BY FRENCH LANE.

While only preliminary maneuvers leading up to the formation of an Illinois turf controlling body came out of a meeting of representatives of the different race tracks in the state at the Congress hotel yesterday, there were numerous developments that will play an important part in future racing affairs in the Chicago district.

Six race tracks which operated last year sent representatives to the meeting.

Chief, among the developments were:

1. A decision to open the 1927 season probably about May 15 and proceed with almost continuous sport in this section until October.

2. Favorable comment by no official action on a schedule that will provide two short meetings rather than one long meeting at each of the six tracks in the state, which are Lincoln Fields, Hawthorne, Washington Park, Aurora, Peoria, and Fairmount Park.

3. A change in the management of the Washington Park track which indicates the retirement of Thomas E. Bourke as general manager and secretary and which will name County Clerk Robert M. Switzer manager as well as president of the new course at Homewood, which has financial roots in its first venture into metropolitan racing last year.

4. Election of Stuyvesant Peabody of Lincoln Fields as chairman, Robert M. Switzer as vice chairman, and Charles W. Bidwell of Hawthorne as secretary of the new association of Illinois tracks, a name for which has not been selected.

5. Failure to act on plan of campaign.

The breach opened Tuesday between the National Hockey league and the Chicago Cardinals of the American Hockey association remains as wide as ever. President Frank Calder of the National league, who also represents all of the minor leagues of Canada and the United States, held a meeting with A. H. Warren, president of the American association, yesterday, but the session failed to bring any change in situation.

The trouble centers about the two star players of the Cardinals team, Marvin Wentworth and Teddy Graham. Calder outlines stand.

According to President Calder, the National league is the only major organization in the world and the agreement signed with the American association was made with the understanding that the Americans accept the position of a minor league and be governed by the national organization.

President Calder declares the Chicago American association club has failed in several respects to live up to this agreement, but that the principal matter of dispute at this time concerns the status of Players Wentworth and Graham.

War Over Cardinal Stars. Graham was a member of the London (Ont.) amateur team last year. The Wentworth belonged to the amateur team at Windsor, Ont. These players were advanced considerable money during the summer by the Chicago American association. President Calder said: When Graham and Wentworth agreed to play with the Chicago Americans the local club agreed to pay the players—that is, to reimburse the London and Windsor teams for the money they had advanced and also to pay extra cash for the men's release.

London and Windsor still are unpaid. The Cardinals have refused to pay the releases and also have announced that no such deal would be announced.

In the Wake of the News

FUGIUM OF THE PAST.
FRIEND HARVEY: About twenty-five years ago, when old Tatter-smell's harbored the padded mitt gradators, two prelin boys were staging a real honest-to-goodness slugfest. Malachy Hogan, who was refereeing the bout, kept telling the lads they would have to show some action, although they were hitting each other with everything except the ring posts.

Along about the third round, Malachy, after winking at the ringsters, again admonished the batters for lack of action. "At the end of the round Hogan again told them that the customers had paid to see a fight."

"One of the kids turned on him and yelled so that they seated around the ring could clearly hear him. 'Say, you big stiff, wetnoid do you want for a' bucks, a civil war?'"

An Unfortunate Omission.
I am wondering why my sweetie's name was not included in the list of All-Americans. He has not missed a game in three years. What position on the team does he play? Why? he's the cheer leader.

Colored Boxer Dies of Boxing Bout Injuries
Fred Canady, colored, 29 years old, 124 East Forty-fourth street, a boxer, died at his home last night from injuries suffered, the police said, last Friday in a bout with another Negro at Ferrati's gymnasium, 2361 South Millard avenue. Toward the close of the exhibition Canady was knocked out by Ernest Taylor, 2146 Giles street. He was taken to his home, unconscious, and had since been ill.

Hornsby May Go to Cubs or Giants, Rumor

New York, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Rogers Hornsby today loomed as the central figure in one of baseball's biggest prospective deals as national league magnates embarked for Chicago to attend the joint meeting of the two major leagues tomorrow.

Unless Hornsby recedes from his contract demands on President Sam Breadon, the star second baseman and manager of the world's champions will be placed on the market next month, according to information which reached the magnates. At least two clubs, the Giants and Cubs, have indications of opening negotiations for his services.

Frich Is There.
Neither Breadon nor other club owners would discuss in detail what was characterized as "the most serious split in baseball" as they departed. It is a matter of common baseball gossip that McGraw and his own second base star, Frank Frich, have been at loggerheads. The Giants' leader would jump at a chance to replace Frich with Hornsby.

The magnates pointed out that probably only the Giants or Cubs would be prepared to negotiate for Hornsby, whose present player contract calls for an annual salary of $27,000. President William Veck of the Chicago team also was on the same train with Breadon.

Baiting Record Slumps.
"Breadon and Hornsby are of the type that is hard to bring together," said one man close to the situation. "Both are determined, hard headed men, and the breach between them is wide. Hornsby demands a new contract as manager for three years at a salary said to exceed $50,000. Breadon is willing to raise the pay check to $30,000, but that is as far as he will go. Furthermore, he cannot see a three year contract."

Friends of Breadon pointed to the fact that Hornsby's value as a player dropped last season with his assumption of the club management. He complained of trouble with his back and his batting average slumped eight-six points, from .463 to .317.

Killefer, Looking for Job, Arrives at Baseball Meet

Bill Killefer, former manager of the Cubs and last year assistant to Rogers Hornsby at St. Louis, arrived yesterday in search of employment. He has several offers under consideration. It is said that Killefer can have the management of the world's champion Cardinals if the club doesn't come to an agreement with Hornsby. Out of friendship for Hornsby, Killefer will not consider the appointment unless the present manager should be traded.

One change made in the American league constitution covered the possibility of a tie for first place at the end of the season. In the event of two teams being even with no more games scheduled the tie will be determined by one game, the date and place of which shall be determined by Ban Johnson.

When the majors are in joint session this afternoon they will receive a visit from a minor league delegation which desires to discuss a revision of the draft rule. The small fellows want to eliminate the draft entirely or raise the price.

It is a certainty that whenever the subject of Landis' reelection is brought up that his term will be for seven years from next November. The American league has not considered raising his salary and some of the National owners do not approve of such a suggestion so the commissioners will have to struggle along on his $50,000 per annum.

Jack Fourlager, now a free agent after many years in the American and National leagues, is in town awaiting bids for his services. He wants to manage a minor league troupe.

The Waltons to See Movie of Great Outdoors Tonight
The first showing of "Alaskan Adventures," a motion picture dealing with the experiences of Capt. Jack Robertson and Arthur Young, will be made at the Inauk Theatre dinner tonight at the Palmer house. The advanced showing is by courtesy of Balaban & Katz. Glenn Griswald will be installed as president of the Chicago chapter.

A. L. RESTORES BAN JOHNSON TO ADVISORY BOARD

O. K.s Commissioner for Re-Election.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.
Moves that may develop either into a defiance of Commissioner K. M. Landis or an effort to iron out the political kinks that now separate the Landis and the Ban Johnson factions were made yesterday by the American league magnates in the second day of their annual meeting.

That the junior major desires the commissioner to continue to function in his $50,000 a year job was made evident by the adoption of a resolution endorsing him for reelection at the end of his present contract that expires next November.

But in the next breath the American league magnates, with the Chicago White Sox refusing to vote, restored their president, Ban Johnson, to the advisory council from which he was banished to satisfy demands made by the commissioner last two years ago.

The situation is expected to be clarified today at the joint meeting of the American and National leagues. The senior organization wound up its session in New York yesterday.

Play Hide and Seek.
The committee of three league directors appointed Tuesday to pay Landis a visit and assure him that the league harbored no ill feeling against him had been unable to act, partly because of press of business and partly because of a slight indisposition by the baseball czar.

Yesterday morning when the committee was leaving Landis was at his hotel and the delegation chose to wait. In the afternoon the commissioner slipped behind his desk in baseball headquarters and there was a welcome sight on the door, but nobody called.

The committee was too busy with league affairs. And with olive branches, threats of trouble and who not closed up him from all sides, Landis refrained from an interview. When asked what he thought might happen, he replied that he didn't know. When asked to declare himself on the plan of not only the American league but the National as well to curtail the free hand he has wielded for six years, the commissioner was equally unhelpful.

Expect Showdown Today.
When the American leaguers sent out word from their secret session that Johnson had been returned to the advisory board rumors of a pending break between the two major leagues through the lobby of the Congress hotel. Johnson's show of strength was regarded as a sure sign that the American league had made up its mind to run its own business and result in harmonious working relations between Johnson, who has the backing of seven of his clubs, and Landis, who is supported by the National league and the White Sox of the Chicago club of the American circuit.

Whether it is one or the other will be determined today. He will face his employers and hear their story. If he voices no objection to working with advisory committees appointed by each major league, the probably for seven years from next November, is assured. If he balks at curtailment of power the election may be deferred until such time as a new agreement can be drawn up.

Old Saw Spun.
The so-called advisory council has been an irritating point since Landis was hurried into office six years ago. The agreement between the commissioner and the sixteen clubs passed that the Landis should, with Landis, constitute the council.

So far as is known the council never functioned. Landis assumed complete control, which was his right by other clauses in the same agreement. Johnson was never summoned by the czar, due to differences that sprang up between them at the start. Because of the course adopted by the commissioner the club owners gradually got the idea that they had no hand in the running of their own affairs. Two years ago Landis demanded Johnson be removed from the council and this action was taken. Frank Navin of Detroit was substituted, but Landis still neglected to give the American league the voice it wanted. Yesterday's return of Johnson to the board is the result.

After the meeting none of the Johnson club owners would admit the move was made with the idea of curbing hostility to Landis. Some of the magnates wouldn't even discuss the point. Others passed it off as a step in the interests of sound business.

Debate on Constitution.
Among the other items discussed by the league was the new constitution. This kept the delegates in session until seven o'clock last night and they'll resume this morning. It was said by one owner that, just before adjournment a move was started to cast aside the debate on the constitution and take up the question of whether Landis' reelection should occur in the fall meeting today. Nothing was done, but some of the magnates are of the opinion that, so long as the commissioner's term does not expire the eleven month election should be postponed.

The resolution endorsing Landis for another term was introduced by Phil Ball, the St. Louis owner, who two years ago refused to sign a paper publicly humiliating Johnson. Clark Griffith of Washington was responsible for the resolution restoring Johnson to the advisory council. On the latter, verbal votes were called for and seven clubs accepted. Attorney Al Austin, acting for Charles Comiskey of the White Sox, said his client did not wish to cast a vote.

Sox Want Second Baseman.
While the Junior major migrants were engaged in their business affairs the Congress lobby continued to be a debating box for the managers who are in the mood for trades. But nothing was consummated mainly because it is not considered good form to give a free lined overcoat for a straw hat in December.

The St. Louis club was given some kind of a proposition by the White Sox, but nothing is expected to come of it. Manager Schalk, who is the manager of the White Sox, said his client did not wish to cast a vote.

Williams on Market.
Ken Williams, the hard hitting outfielder of the Browns, is on the market but not for cash alone. The Cleveland Indians offered to take him on a straight money basis, but the Browns' manager countered with a request that he be handed either Shafts or Leaven, both hurlers.

The one deal that may be sealed before the season disperses involves the Browns and Yankees. The latter may give Pitcher Sam Jones for Elam Van Gilder, also a slapper. There is even a possibility that before the Tanks and Browns finish talking McManus and Ward may be included in the transaction.

Manager Bill Carrigan of the Red Sox made the Boston scribes happy by giving them a story about the team's training camp. It will be at New Orleans. The White Sox had this place under consideration and now that it is occupied it is certain the Red Sox boys will do their conditioning at Shreveport. The Sox also will conclude their spring barnstorming tour with a two game series at Toledo.

WOULD CUT PLAYERS' PRICE

New York, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Establishment of a maximum price for player purchases, revision of the minor league draft agreement, and more harmonious working arrangements between the two major leagues and Commissioner Landis are some of the recommendations which National League representatives carried toward Chicago tonight for discussion in the newly appointed "steering" committee of the two circuits.

Discussing a suggestion that the leagues agree on a top price of $30,000 for minor league players, President John A. Heydler admitted that the bidding of owners for valuable minor league stars had become a "cut-throat game."

"Unless some steps are taken to bring about a mutual understanding," he said, "the practice of creating 'farm' players will be more extensively adopted. It will be hard to restrict the owners to a maximum price for players, but with Commissioner Landis at the head of the game, it is my opinion that some such agreement could be enforced."

Heydler was asked whether the "steering" committee would recommend curtailment of the powers of Landis, as was indicated at yesterday's American league meeting in Chicago.

"That is not the thought at all," he said. "We are all satisfied with Commissioner Landis. Personally, I do not think Landis would stand for any such attempt. If American league owners have that in mind, I think they will be disappointed."

CITY HANDBALL CHAMP TO PLAY FOR CHARITY
Louis Nelson, city handball champion, tonight will play the first of a series of exhibition matches for the Tribune Good Fellowship fund. Hugo Le Gros will be his opponent and the game will be played at the Fort Dearborn Town club.

Church League Fives Play Tonight at Lindblom High
Three Church Athletic association basketball games originally scheduled for the Parker high school gym tonight, have been transferred to the Lindblom high school floor.

McKinley won a heavyweight practice game yesterday afternoon from the Hyde Park cage crew, 25 to 20, at the McKinley floor. But the Hyde Park lights had the better of the visiting team, winning, 25 to 24, in an overtime game.

PACKERS DRILL ON ICY GRID FOR TILT WITH BEARS

Green Bay, Wis., Dec. 15.—[Special.]—Looking like a bunch of polar bears playing tag in the frozen north the Green Bay Packers are working out daily in preparation for the P. J. Carr Christmas benefit game in Chicago Sunday against the Bears at Soldier's field. The Badger state champions don't know what a grass gridiron looks like any more but they are beginning to feel at home on a frozen surface.

Pid Purdy, the Packer quarter who is also a member of the Chicago White Sox, reported for practice today equipped with skates. Fans who come to the park to see the drills stand on snow piles about ten feet high which make a good grandstand. The Big Bay Blues hope to down the Bears and gain revenge for the 19 to 13 defeat they suffered at Chicago on Nov. 21.

BEAR MACHINE READY
Enconced in second place in the National pro league, the Bears are drilling daily despite the cold weather for the season's finale with Green Bay Packers at Soldier's field Sunday afternoon. Should Frankford defeat Pottsville Saturday at Philadelphia, the tilt with the Packers will have no bearing on the final league standing, but in the event of a Pottsville win, a victory over Green Bay will bring the championship to Chicago.

However, there is the matter of professional pride to be considered. The first game of the year, waged on the Packer gridiron, between these two clubs was a drawn affair, 6 to 4. Four weeks ago the north siders knocked the Wisconsin eleven out of the running for the title, grabbing the long end of a 19 to 13 score after it seemed that the Bears must triumph. That game was easily the most spectacular of the Bears' season, and the Packers clearly demonstrated that theirs is a great grid machine.

MEYERS' PIN BYL STRAIGHT

Talaber Wins up from

MEYERS' LOCKS PIN BYLUND IN STRAIGHT FALLS

Talaber Wins Semi-Wind-up from Kilonis.

BY WALTER BECKERSALL.
Johnny Meyers, world's middleweight champion, had little trouble defeating his opponent, Bobby Bylund, in the final round of the championship fight at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel last night.

The champion gave a great exhibition of many holds to win in straight falls. Johnny won the first fall with a body hold, the double wrist lock and cross-body, in 47:28 and he took the second in 1:37 by using the same holds.

At no time was Meyers in danger of defeat, although the crowd thought Bylund's head locks during the first fall had the champion groggy.

Meyers Wins First Fall.
After securing the lock, the champion rolled Bylund to the mat and pinned him with a hammerlock. By throwing his weight against the prostrate form of his opponent, Meyers gradually pulled Bobby's shoulders to the mat and was pinned on the back by Referee Emil They after 17:28 of grappling.

When Bylund left the ring his left arm was practically useless. There did not appear to be much circulation and the entire hand was white. During the ten minutes' intermission Bobby's manager did everything possible to restore the circulation and strength in the injured member.

At the call of time for the second fall Meyers immediately went after Bobby's injured arm. He secured the double wrist lock from a standing position and again rolled his opponent to the canvas and gradually forced his shoulder to the mat.

Talaber Throws Kilonis.
In the semi-wind-up Lou Talaber, former middleweight champion, defeated John Kilonis in 21:23 with a reverse wrist lock. It was a one fall affair and Talaber was master of the situation at all times.

Tony Hadjick of Portage Park won from Walter Biller, former Central A. A. U. middleweight champion, in the one fall opener. Tony won in 10:24 with a toe hold, Biller conceding the fall when Hadjick secured the step-over lock.

Charley "Midget" Fisher, Wisconsin middleweight, took the other one fall match from Jack Herman of Texas in 20:50 with a head lock.

Matchmaker Peshmahjian estimated about 3,500 fans paid $6,000 to see the show.

Kid Jap Knocks Out Everett in Third Round.
Kid Jap, Oriental flyweight champ, knocked out Stanley Everett of Pekin, Ill., in the third round of a scheduled ten-round fight last night in the main event at the Logan Square Athletic club. Both fighters mixed it furiously while it lasted. Kid Jap came out of a clinch and planted a right to Everett's jaw after two minutes of fighting in the third round. He finished Everett.

In the semi-wind-up Happy Childs and Bud Nardi went six fast rounds to a draw at 150 pounds.

Geese Flock Floats Down Mississippi.
BY BOB BECKER.
Mississippi River, Illinois, Dec. 15.—(Special.)—The flocks of Canadian geese wintering down here on the sand bars have been singing "Thanks for the Buggy Ride" most of this morning. Paul Davis and I, sitting in our willow blind on a sand bar that is nearly a quarter of a mile long, have been watching the big birds rattle together on the Mississippi as they "ride" down the river with the swift current.

Every once in a while the rumble of the joy riders is increased as flocks of honkers come down the river and gently coast down to the surface of the water. And when such a gang arrives all the riders and the fliers lift their voices in one grand chorus, extolling the fun of "buggy riding" with the current.

At five minutes of 12 this morning, when the raft of geese, easily a quarter of a mile long, was gradually floated out of sight, we watched a new flock of 1,000 to 2,000 geese pass us on their way to join the bunch drifting down the river.

To see such a flock of honkers and to hear them calling to one another from a central headquarters in the Cairo district, and shooting was forgotten as we stood up in our ringside seats to take in the show.

'Brown,' Iowa End Years Ago, Turns Up as Dr. Edmonds

Iowa City, Ia., Dec. 15.—(Special.)—After thirty years the name of J. Brown, left end on the Iowa eleven of 1885 and 1886, will be changed in the athletic records to C. W. Edmonds, and C. W. Edmonds, a doctor of Ocedo, Neb., will come to Iowa City for the dedication of the new Iowa fieldhouse to receive his long overdue "I" sweater.

A letter to the department of athletics here a few days ago explained a mystery which had been puzzling for months. The "J. Brown" who was listed for two years as an end did not appear as a student of the university at all and his permanent address could not be found.

Dr. Edmonds explains his use of "Brown" as a shield to prevent his parents from knowing that he was a devotee of the "brutal" game of football.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Dec. 15.—(Special.)—Fort Wayne's Hoosiers came back after their overtime defeat by Cleveland to win over the Rochester Centra's tonight in a slow game by the score of 28 to 21. Both teams appeared dead on the floor, and the locals took things easy all the way.

Frank Shimek was the high scorer of the evening, sinking just half of Fort Wayne's points on three field goals and eight free throws. Rochester missed many easy chances at the net. Rabin and Barry each scored twice from the field.

Geese Flock Floats Down Mississippi.
BY BOB BECKER.
Mississippi River, Illinois, Dec. 15.—(Special.)—The flocks of Canadian geese wintering down here on the sand bars have been singing "Thanks for the Buggy Ride" most of this morning. Paul Davis and I, sitting in our willow blind on a sand bar that is nearly a quarter of a mile long, have been watching the big birds rattle together on the Mississippi as they "ride" down the river with the swift current.

Every once in a while the rumble of the joy riders is increased as flocks of honkers come down the river and gently coast down to the surface of the water. And when such a gang arrives all the riders and the fliers lift their voices in one grand chorus, extolling the fun of "buggy riding" with the current.

At five minutes of 12 this morning, when the raft of geese, easily a quarter of a mile long, was gradually floated out of sight, we watched a new flock of 1,000 to 2,000 geese pass us on their way to join the bunch drifting down the river.

To see such a flock of honkers and to hear them calling to one another from a central headquarters in the Cairo district, and shooting was forgotten as we stood up in our ringside seats to take in the show.

Winners of Police Games Banquet Guests Tonight.
Chief of Police Morgan Collins and prize winners in the annual police games held last fall will be tendered a banquet tonight at the C. A. A. by the Cherry Circle athletic committee and members of the citizens' executive committee.

SUBDIVIDERS ON FAR SOUTH SIDE IN ASSOCIATION

BY AL CHASE.

Forty subdivision firms operating on the far south side in the Illinois Central electrification belt, representing approximately 10,000 acres, yesterday formed the Golden Gate Development association, to carry out a uniform program for this vast territory and to coordinate the various developments into one great regional plan.

This idea originated with Victor Michelson, engineer and planner, who is now chief of the County Map department, some time ago. Mr. Michelson was elected first vice president of the new association and chairman of its board of directors.

Percy Wilson, head of the subdivision firm of Percy Wilson & Co., was elected president at the first meeting of the association, held at the Chicago Athletic association yesterday. There were seventy members and acre owners at the luncheon.

J. Alton Lauren was elected secretary and W. P. Heyn treasurer. In addition to Mr. Michelson there are five assistant vice presidents: Percy Wagner, John Carroll, Murray Wolbach, O. C. Hagen, and F. M. Thompson. Mr. Thompson is a vice president of the Illinois Central railroad.

One of the first moves of the new association will be the establishment of a drainage district in the Tremont district, north of Vollmer road.

Poor Buys Plotke Estate

Milton S. Plotke has sold his estate of eighty acres and residence located on Telegraph road, near Rockland road, between Lake Forest and Lake Bluff, to Fred A. Poor, railway supply man, for a reported price of $115,000. Mr. and Mrs. Poor will occupy the estate for a country residence. Mr. Poor gave in part payment his summer home at Lake Delavan, Wis.

W. K. Young & Co. were brokers. Irwin Grossman handled the legal details for Mr. Plotke and O. S. Baylis represented Mr. Poor.

COTTON PRICES RISE

Cotton prices have had a fair advance of late despite the harsh surroundings, the close yesterday being at around the highest of the day. Net gains on futures were 26 to 31 points in Chicago and 22 to 29 points in other markets. Spot gained 25 points to 12.85 in New York and 12.55 in New Orleans. Liverpool was stronger and 4 to 5 points higher and had a strengthening influence on American markets, as also did the cold weather and rains in part of the south.

The weekly weather crop bulletin reported rains in the northeastern and northern portions of the belt, delaying picking and damaging the staple. The impression prevails that there will be less increase in the ginning report due to Monday than has been looked for. Damages from rain was also reported from the far south where trade reports were quiet. Prices follow:

Mrs. W. J. Calhoun— Arrives Saturday for Chicago Visit

BY NANCY R.

It will be of great interest to Mrs. W. J. Calhoun's many friends in this part of the world to learn that she is arriving in Chicago next Saturday afternoon on Saturday. Mrs. Calhoun, the former Lucy Monroe, is the sister of Mrs. Harriet Monroe and William S. Monroe, and it is at the William S. Monroe East Elm street apartment that the visitor will be during her Chicago sojourn.

Mrs. Calhoun, due to her long residence in Peking and her world-wide acquaintances with distinguished folk, is often referred to as the "first lady of Peking," so secure is her social position in that oriental city. Within the last few months she purchased Tai's apartment and beautiful house in one of the really Chinese quarters of the town, and there she lives, apparently as much at ease as she would be in a land where warfare and dissension were unknown, dispensing hospitality to the many guests who come knocking at her door.

Mrs. Monroe is giving a small party at the opera machine on Saturday for Mrs. Calhoun, the latter's train doesn't arrive from the west coast in time for luncheon, so her friends will have their first opportunity of greeting her at the Auditorium.

I hear that Mrs. John Christie Caldwell, who is spending this winter with her parents, the E. J. H. Farrells of 1211 North State street, is already making plans to dash to the southwest part of the country right after Christmas. She and Mrs. Joseph Bowen had such a delightful European jaunt this summer that they're planning to "do" another corner of the world together. The Bowen's ranch in Arizona is a charming and hospitable spot, and it's there with her hosts that Mrs. Caldwell is journeying within the next fortnight. Before that, however, the Farrells will have had a cheery family reunion, as their eldest son, Lieut. W. G. Farrell, and his wife and baby, and another officer, Lieut. H. C. Frazer, U. S. N., are coming on from Washington, D. C., for a few days' visit.

Brushing Often Achieves That Chic and "Slick" Coiffure

"Are the preparations one buys to keep the hair slicked down harmful to the hair? Does their use mean you have to wash the hair oftener?" Etc.

The preparations on the market that have petroleum as their base, which most of them have, are not harmful. On the contrary, if the scalp is inclined to dryness they may prove quite beneficial. One concrete example recently came to my notice where the use of a reputedly manufactured hair slicker resulted in a noticeable improvement in both quantity and quality of hair.

On an only head I should advise that it be used with restraint, however, and when used an early shampoo should follow. It wouldn't seem as though the oily haired would need to use one of the preparations, but there are types that like their heads on dress occasions to look orientally done. In China it is the custom in correct hair-dressing circles to plaster the hair down firmly with some sort of oily unguent and the Chinese are noted for their luxurious locks. Hair net manufacturers drew largely upon China for the nets made from human hair when their business was at its high peak.

An oily substance is better to use than water for holding the hair in place. The practice of wetting the bobbed head frequently with comb or brush dipped in water is frowned on by our best hair authorities.

For those who haven't tried it, it is surprising how well hair stays put after lively brushings. It is a habit that ought to be more generally indulged in for the health of the hair as well as its beauty. If your hair has been noticeably dry of late give yourself one week's trial of applying the brush for five minutes by the clock nightly. If you don't emerge at the end of the week with a shaven to your hitherto lusterless locks I'll be surprised.

Elmer Praises Cellist for His Radio Recital

Much Tuning Required to Find A-1 Programs.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

Considerable dial turning was necessary to seek out a full evening of stuff that was either interesting or worth while last evening.

Perhaps the best combination of these two qualities was found in Johan Lingman's cello recital, WGN, 8 to 9:30, during which Saint-Saens' Concerto in A minor was played completely. And it may be taken for granted that this concerto was sufficiently interesting to a far larger group than merely those who are familiar with Saint-Saens' pretty little plays and interludes with short melodies and interludes in fancy designs.

These listeners will also desire to know that the station's accompanist, Carl Liner, the station's accompanist, receives full recognition for his outstanding work at the piano. That Mr. Lingman's cello solo belonged to Louis the Fourteenth is incidental, or more, as you like.

In the same musical category belongs the performance of Frank's Trio in F Sharp minor by the Nelsons, KTW, at 7 o'clock. As it happens, the samples from the two famous French composers were typical of each, and the attentive listener must have been impressed with the broader color and greater ease with which Frank could be grasped at first hearing, as compared with Saint-Saens.

The concert by radio's good friends, the Chicago Heights Woman's Club, WLS, 9:30, again revealed the characteristics that make for admiration and applause from an audience. This club's program was always excellent and their voices harmonized so smoothly that one might be led to infer that acceptance of their choruses is a matter of course. Anyhow, credit to John Liner, the director.

The chronological portrayal of the songs of American historical significance, as being given in series form by the WGN male quartet, 8:45, with title, "Romance of Uncle Sam," has an atmosphere all its own. The atmosphere is colonial, at present. And it is a good thing, this feature program seems to be getting better and more appreciated as its pages are weekly turned.

Paul Ash and his gang, WGN, 7:15, certainly had their audience at the Oriental theater laughing their heads off, especially one man in the audience with a baritone voice.

SOCIALISTS BALK PLAN FOR STRONG GERMAN CABINET

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Dec. 15.—Efforts to form a strong coalition cabinet were abandoned late tonight when the Socialists voted to enter such a coalition but only after the present cabinet had resigned. The Socialists further decided to introduce a motion of non-confidence in the Reichstag if the cabinet refuses to resign.

The Socialist caucus was called to discuss advances made by the government which today unanimously decided to invite the Socialists to enter the cabinet in order to provide the country with a strong, stable government, backed by a majority of the members of the Reichstag.

Cabinet Now Lacks Needed Votes.

The present government possesses no majority in the Reichstag and is forced to seek allies in the right and left for a settlement of every problem. This delays the progress of all legislation.

In view of Foreign Minister Stresemann's success in Geneva, the position of the government is strong momentarily, and therefore Chancellor Marx felt the time was propitious to invite the Socialists to participate in the cabinet.

Best Way to Loosen Stubborn Cough

This home-made remedy is a wonder for equal results.

There is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest becomes easier, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, whooping cough, throat tickle, or bronchial asthma.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified honey. Keep for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and tastes good.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and menthol. It is the best cough remedy for the family. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction. Money refunded if not satisfied. The Pinex Co., 111 W. Wayne, La.

Best Way to Loosen Stubborn Cough

This home-made remedy is a wonder for equal results.

There is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest becomes easier, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, whooping cough, throat tickle, or bronchial asthma.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified honey. Keep for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and tastes good.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and menthol. It is the best cough remedy for the family. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction. Money refunded if not satisfied. The Pinex Co., 111 W. Wayne, La.
